

laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate in the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hull.'

"And with the like consent of the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Healey Bromby, incumbent of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint Stephen, shall be paid by the incumbent thereof to the said John Healey Bromby.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county and diocese of York, which is bounded on the west by an imaginary line extending from the middle of Spring Bank, along the middle of the West Parade to the middle of the Anlaby Road, on the south by an imaginary line extending along the middle of such last-named road, and on the north and east by the parish of Sculcoates, in the same county and diocese, and by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such last-named parish and the said parish of the Holy Trinity, in the middle of Prospect-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such last-named street, and along the middle of Carlisle-street, to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of West-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of such last-named street to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of South-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such last-named street to the middle of the Anlaby Road aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate in the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of York, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hull," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-ground or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation, shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been
