

given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish :

And whereas the Right Honourable Thomas Sotherton Estcourt, late one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the vaults beneath the church of CHRIST CHURCH, SURREY ;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the sixth of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth of July instant, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued, from and after the eighth day of August next, in the vaults beneath the said church of CHRIST CHURCH, SURREY.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of July, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard and burial-ground be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard and burial-ground be postponed, as follows ; viz. :

In the churchyard of All Saints, Chorlton, in MANCHESTER, from the first of July instant, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, on the same conditions as those specified in an Order in Council of the second day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, varying a former Order in respect of this churchyard ;

In Christ Church Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, in MANCHESTER, from the thirtieth of June last, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, on condition that all the regulations prescribed by certain Orders in Council of the seventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and twenty-second of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in reference to this burial-ground, be strictly observed.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of July, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications :

WROCKWARDINE, SALOP.—Forthwith in the churchyard, except in soil which is free from water and human remains ; no coffin to be buried less than four feet below the surface, or within one foot of any other coffin, unless deposited in a vault or walled grave which is free from water, and in which each coffin shall be entombed in an air-tight manner.

KNAPTON, NORFOLK.—Forthwith in the vaults and graves beneath the parish church ; and also that the vault abutting on the north wall of the chancel be filled with earth and powdered charcoal.

LUDGVAN, CORNWALL.—In the parish burial-ground, on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be entombed in an air-tight manner.

EAST STONEHOUSE, DEVON.—Forthwith in the new part of the parish churchyard of Saint George, Stonehouse ; and that the surface be covered with fresh mould, and a growing vegetation maintained thereon.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twelfth day of September next ;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the
