FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1859.

Admiralty, September 16, 1859.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty from Rear-Admiral James Hope, C.B., Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels on the East India and China Station.

No. 77. Chesapeake, Gulf of Pechili,
SIR, July 5, 1859.

I REQUEST you will inform the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that having on the 17th ultimo, arrived off the Island of Sha-lui-tien, in the Gulf of Pechili, where I reported in my letter, No. 66, of the 11th ultimo, the squadron had been directed to rendezvous, I proceeded on the following day to the mouth of the Pei-Ho River, with the object of intimating to the local authorities the intended arrival of the Honourable Frederick Bruce, Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary, and Monsieur de Bourboulon, Minister of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of the French, and of reconnoitring the existing state of the defences of the river.

2. These last appeared to consist principally of the reconstruction, in earth, and in an improved form, of the works destroyed last year, strengthened by additional ditches and abattis, as well as an increased number of booms of a very much more formidable nature, a description of all of which will be found on the annexed plan, furnished by Major Fisher of the Royal Engineers. Very few guns were seen, but a considerable number of embrasures were masked with matting, evidently with a view of concealing others.

3. Having sent an officer on shore to communicate with the authorities, he was met by a guard, apparently of country people, who prevented him from landing, informed him that there were no officials nearer than Tient-sin, and on his acquainting them with my wish that the obstructions at the mouth of the river should be removed, in order to enable the ministers to proceed to Tient-sin, a promise was given that a commencement should be made for this purpose within the next forty-eight hours.

On the following day I moved the whole of the squadron up to the anchorage off the mouth of the river, placing the gun-boats inside the bar. On proceeding to examine the entrance, on the 20th, and finding that nothing had been done towards removing the obstructions before referred to, I addressed a letter to the Tantai, at Tient-sin, acquainting him with the object of my arrival, and requesting free communication with the shore. To this an evasive answer was received two days subsequently.

On the 21st I received a letter from Mr. Bruce, acquainting me that M. de Bourboulon and himself had come to the conclusion to place the matter in my hands, and requesting me to take any measures I might deem expedient for clearing away the obstructions in the river, so as to allow them to proceed at once to Tient-sin; in consequence of which I acquainted the Tantai, that the Ministers having arrived, and the obstructions still existing at the mouth of the river, I should proceed to remove them, using force if necessary, the responsibility of the consequences resting with those by whom I might be opposed. To this communication no reply was received, and consequently on the 24th I took the force inside the bar to prepare for operations, and gave further intimation that after eight o'clock in the evening, if I received no satisfactory reply I should feel myself at liberty to take my own course.

6. On the same night the parties named in the margin,* under the direction of Captain G. O. Willes, cut one of the cables of the boom, marked D in the plan, and blew two away with powder. These last, however, were found re-united on the following day, the supporting logs of wood to which they were cross-lashed being probably moored head and stern. Captain Willes availed himself of this opportunity to examine closely the construction of the inner boom (plan E), and he found it to consist of large baulks, well cross-lashed together, forming a mass of timber not less than 120 feet wide, and about 3 feet in depth. The opening shewn in the plan might have admitted of the passage of a gun-boat, but the strength of the current would, at any time, have rendered such a passage a matter of exceeding difficulty and doubt. Under these circumstances it was clear that no other mode of attack was left open to me, except that on the front of the works, and a subsequent endeavour to carry them by storm, should I succeed in silencing their fire.

7. The morning of the 25th was occupied in placing the vessels in position (see plan), the Starling, Janus, Plover (Flag) Cormorant, Lee, Kestrel, and Banterer, being on a line parallel to the works on the South Fort, and the Nimrod in the rear of the line, with her fire bearing on the North Fort. The Opossum, under Captain Willes, was placed in advance, close up to the Stakes and the Forester, and Haughty in reserve, in rear of the line, the former having directions to move up into the Plover's position, should that vessel advance in support of the Opossum.

The vessels on the right were under the directions of Captain C. F. A. Shadwell; those on the left under Captain N. Vansittart. The strength of the tide and the narrowness of the channel (about 200 yards) had rendered it a matter of extreme difficulty to take up the position above detailed; and the Banterer and Starling, the vessels on the extreme right and left of the line, had both taken the ground, the former, however, in a good position, the latter in one which incapacitated her from taking much share in the action.

At 2 P.M., I directed the Opossum to open a passage through the first barrier, which being effected by 2:30, she moved up to the second barrier, supported by the Plover, closely followed by the Lee and Haughty, which vessels I ordered in for that purpose.

On the arrival of the Opossum at the second barrier, the forts opened a simultaneous fire of not less than between thirty and forty guns, of calibres from 32-pounders to 8-inch, on which I directed the ships to engage. The Plover took up a position close to the barrier. The Opossum, Lee, and Haughty, in succession, astern of her.

At 3 P.M.,* finding that the ships inside the barrier, especially the Plover and Opossum, were becoming disabled by the enemy's fire, they were dropped out into fresh positions outside of it, where, having received assistance in men, they renewed the action.

In consequence of the Plover's disabled state, I shifted my flag to the Cormorant; and at 4:20 a severe wound I had received about an hour previously compelled me to call Captain Shadwell on board the Cormorant, and entrust to him the more immediate command of the squadron.

At 5:40 the Kestrel sunk in her position; and it became necessary to put the Lee on the ground to avoid the like result.

At 6:30 the fire from the north forts ceased altogether, and half an hour later that on the south side was silenced, with the exception of that proceeding from one gun in the outer or south bastion, one in the curtain on each side of it, and one in the flank of the centre bastion, also one in the detached fort to the south.

At 7:20 a landing was effected opposite the outer bastion of the south fort, the portion which appeared most injured by the fire of the squadron, and where the attack could be best supported by the guns of the vessels. The force consisted of a detachment of Sappers and Miners, under Major Fisher, Royal Engineers; a brigade of Marines, under Colonel Thomas Lemon; a division of Seamen, under Captain Vansittart, assisted by Commanders John E. Commerell and W. A. J. Heath, the whole under Captain Shadwell's direction, accompanied by a small detachment of French Seamen, under the command of Commandant Tricault.

They were encountered by a heavy fire proceeding from those guns I have already named as not completely silenced, as well as from gingalls and rifles; but notwithstanding these and other serious obstacles presented by the character of the ground to be crossed, and the nature of the defences, 150 officers and men having reached the second ditch, and about 50 having arrived close under the walls, had the opposition they experienced been that usual in Chinese warfare, there is little doubt that the place would have been successfully carried at the point of the bayonet.

* At this time, Lieutenant Rason, of the Plover, was killed, and I placed Lieutenant George A. Douglas, my Flag Lieutenant, in temporary command of her.

Captains Shadwell and Vansittart and Colonel Lemon, R.M., having been disabled in the advance, the command in front devolved on Commander Commerell, who, after consultation with Majors Fisher, R.E., and Richard Parke, R.M., and Commandant Tricault, having reported to Captain Shadwell that they could hold their present position, but that it was impossible to storm without reinforcements, received from that officer the order to retire.

17. This operation was effected with a deliberation and coolness equal to the gallantry of the advance, under cover of the night, which had now closed in, the force being sent down to the boats by detachments, carrying the wounded with them, and eventually the whole were brought off by 1:30 A.M., of the 26th, Commanders Commerell and Heath being the last on shore.

18. I have already stated that the Lee and Kestrel had sunk in their positions from the effect of the enemy's fire; and I regret to add, that in proceeding down the river after the termination of the action, the Plover was grounded within range of the forts, and the Cormorant in endeavouring to remove, was also found to have taken the ground. Under these circumstances I desired the officers and men to be removed from them for the time, in order to obviate the loss which might occur, should the enemy be enabled to reopen their fire.

19. The Kestrel, I am happy to say, has since been recovered; but notwithstanding every exertion which was subsequently made, under the direction of Captain Willes, to recover the three other vessels, the Plover and Lee proved to be so hopelessly aground, that it was impossible to move them; while the Cormorant, which got afloat comparatively uninjured on the night of the 27th, was again unfortunately grounded, within range of the forts, on moving down; and on the following day such a heavy fire was opened on her, that although again afloat, she sank at her anchors, and the officers and men employed in removing her were withdrawn as she went down.

20. The fire of the enemy being remarkably well directed and sustained, occasioned the squadron considerable loss, amounting to 25 officers and men killed, and 93 wounded, of which 54 are slight. Amongst the former I have to regret the loss of Lieutenant W. H. Rason, commanding the Plover, a very promising young officer, and Captain Theo. M'Kenna of the 1st Royals, who was attached to me by the Major-General commanding the Forces in China.

21. In the subsequent attack on shore 64 officers and men were killed, and 252 wounded, of which 90 are slight. Amongst the former I have to regret the loss of Lieutenant A. Graves of the Assistance, Lieutenant C. H. Clutterbuck, and Mr. T. H. Herbert, Midshipman, both of this ship; of Lieutenant Hamilton Wolrige of the Royal Marine Brigade, and Lieutenant H. L. T. Inglis, Royal Marines, of the Highflyer, attached to the 2nd Battalion.

Amongst the severely wounded are—
 Captain Shadwell, C.B., of Her Majesty's ship Highflyer.
 Captain Vansittart, C.B., of Her Majesty's ship Magicienne.
 Acting Lieutenant C. E. Buckle, of Her Majesty's ship Magicienne.
 Mr. A. J. Burniston, Master of the Banterer.
 Mr. N. B. Smith, Acting Mate of the Chesapeake.

Mr. A. Powlett, Midshipman of the Fury.
 Mr. George Armytage, Midshipman of Cruiser.
 Mr. W. Ryan, Gunner of the Plover.
 Lieutenant George Longley, Royal Engineers.
 Colonel Lemon, Royal Marines.
 Captain W. G. R. Masters, Royal Marines, Her Majesty's ship Chesapeake.
 Lieutenant J. C. Crawford, Royal Marine Artillery, and the Rev. H. Huleatt, Chaplain to the Forces.

22. The loss on the part of the French amounted to 4 men killed and 10 wounded, including 2 officers, one of the latter, I regret to state, being Commandant Tricault.

23. My warmest thanks are due to Staff-Surgeon Walter Dickson (b), of this ship, Dr. John Little of the Royal Marine Brigade, and the medical officers of the force generally, to whose unwearied exertions I have to attribute the present satisfactory state of our wounded, and I avail myself of this opportunity of bringing under their Lordships' special notice the very high terms in which Colonel Lemon speaks of the services of Dr. W. J. Baird, senior Assistant-Surgeon of the Brigade.

24. It is a more grateful duty to request you will bring under their Lordships' notice the valuable assistance I received from Captains Shadwell and Vansittart, in command of the respective divisions of gun-boats. Lieutenant John Jenkins is highly recommended by Captain Shadwell for the way in which he fought the Banterer.

Captain Vansittart speaks highly of Acting Commander R. J. Wynniatt of the Nimrod, Lieutenant A. J. Innes of the Forester, Lieutenant J. D. Bevan of the Kestrel, and Lieutenant W. H. Jones of the Lee, whose able conduct in covering the landing, after he had been obliged to put his vessel on the ground to prevent her sinking, had also attracted my notice.

To Commander A. Wodehouse of the Cormorant, Lieutenant C. J. Balfour of the Opossum, J. D. Broad of the Haughty, and H. P. Knevitt of the Janus, my thanks are also due for the manner in which their vessels were fought and handled.

My thanks are also due to Major Fisher, Royal Engineers, whose men being distributed as riflemen in the gun-vessels and gun-boats, was himself present on board the Plover.

The Nozagavy, French gun-boat, not being armed in a manner which enabled her to share in the attack, Monsieur Tricault, Commandant of the Duchayla, did me the honour to attach himself to me from the commencement of the action until he landed.

Mr. J. W. M. Ashby, my Secretary, besides being on duty with me, took charge of the signal duty when my Flag Lieutenant took command of the Plover.

To Commander J. E. Commerell and W. A. J. Heath, for their conduct during the operations on shore, my warmest acknowledgments are due. Commander Commerell brings under my notice Lieutenants George Parsons and John C. Wilson, of the Chesapeake; and C. E. Buckle, Acting, of the Magicienne, Messrs. George S. Peard, John Shortt, and Viscount Kilcourse, Mates, and Messrs. George Armytage and C. L. Oxley, Midshipmen.

To Colonel Lemon my warmest acknowledgments are also due for the way in which he led the Brigade. That officer strongly recommends Major Parke, who commanded the First, and Captain Masters, who commanded the Second Battalion, and brings under my notice the assistance he received from Captain P. M. C. Croker, Brigade-Major, Lieutenant L. Rokeby, acting as his Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenants and Adjutants John F. Hawkey and H. L. Evans, and Lieutenant John Straghan. The conspicuous gallantry of Serjeant-Major Woon and Quarter-master-Serjeant Halling also attracted his notice.

Major Fisher, Royal Engineers, speaks highly of the gallantry of Lieutenant J. N. Maitland, R.E., in endeavouring to get the scaling-ladders up, a service in which Lieutenant Longley, R.E., was also engaged and unfortunately wounded.

To Captain J. O. Willes my warmest thanks are due for his exertions in re-embarking the force when it became evident that the attack had failed, on which service he remained till Commander Commerell reported to him that the last man was re-embarked.

He speaks highly of Lieutenant J. C. Wilson and M. John St. John Wagstaffe, Assistant-Paymaster, on that occasion (the latter of whom accompanied him throughout the day). Upon Captain Willes also devolved the arduous duty of directing the gallant attempts which were subsequently made to recover the Plover, Lee, and Cormorant, and when that became hopeless, to effect their destruction, and to his unwearied zeal, I am indebted for carrying out the repairs of the gun-boats, all of which have been placed on the ground for that purpose.

He speaks highly of all the officers and men employed on this service, and especially of the gallantry of Lieutenant N. P. Knevitt, of the Janus, in laying out an anchor for the recovery of the Cormorant, under a heavy fire, and of that of Mr. Oscar Samson, Second Master of the Starling, who recovered that vessel under a sharp fire from the enemy, on her floating; of the efforts made by Lieutenant Wilson and Mr. S. R. Broome, Gunner of the Chesapeake, to destroy the vessels which were no longer recoverable; and of the energy displayed by Mr. W. D. Strong, Master of the Cruiser, in raising the Haughty, which had sunk.

He further calls my attention to the exertions of the carpenters of the Assistance, Cruiser, and Magicienne, under the direction of Mr. R. Pickard, of this ship, who in effecting the repairs of the gun-boats, with the artificers of the squadron, had many difficulties to surmount.

From what has preceded their lordships will be well able to appreciate the devoted gallantry displayed by the officers and men on this occasion; and although it has not pleased God to crown our efforts in the execution of our duty with success, I yet feel entire confidence that those efforts will obtain from their Lordships that full measure of approbation they have so well deserved.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. HOPE,

Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.
