

church of Saint Philip, situate in the township of Upper Penn aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Penn, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, and thereon coloured green, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Philip Upper Penn.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being :

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the township of Upper Penn, in the parish of Penn Saint Bartholomew, in the county of Stafford, and diocese of Lichfield, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary between the township of Upper Penn, and the parish of Sedgley, in the same county and diocese at a point in the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 80 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Penn, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 81 on the same maps, and extending thence westward along the middle of such fence, as far as the middle of the fence which divides the said closes, numbered respectively 80 and 81, from the close numbered 82 on the said maps, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned fence, as far as the middle of the eastern end of the fence which divides the said close numbered 82, from the close numbered 78 on the said maps, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned fence, to the middle of Muchall-lane, and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned lane, as far as the middle of the easternmost end of a new road called Muchall New Road, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to the middle of the High Road leading from Stourbridge to Wolverhampton, and extending thence southwestward for a distance of one hundred and thirty two yards along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to a point opposite to a boundary stone marked "St. B. P. No. 1," which has been placed on the western side of such last-mentioned road, and extending thence westward in a straight line from the said boundary stone, to another boundary stone marked "St. B. P. No. 2," placed on the western side of Pinford-lane, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the fence which divides the close, numbered 446 on the maps aforesaid, from the close numbered 448 on the same maps, and extending thence in a straight line from the last-mentioned boundary stone, to another boundary stone marked, "St. B. P. No. 3," placed on the western side of Livelands-lane, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 360 b. on the said maps, from the close numbered 361 on such maps, and extending thence in a straight line from the last-mentioned boundary stone to another boundary stone marked, "St. B. P. No. 4," placed on the boundary between the said township of Upper Penn, and the township of Lower Penn, in the said parish of Penn, at a point situate at a distance of six feet from the southern-end of the fence which divides the close numbered 700 on the aforesaid maps, from the close numbered 378 on the same maps."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Philip, situate in the township of Upper Penn, in the parish of Penn Saint Bartholomew, in the county of Stafford, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Philip, Upper Penn," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen ; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three ; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one ; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of his Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen ; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one ; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Frogmore, in the parish of Saint Stephen, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said
