THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received the following Papers:

No. 1.

No. 1039 of 1859.—His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from Brigadier-General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., Commanding Gwalior Division, forwarding a report of a successful action against the rebels under Adil Mahomed Khan, in the Basoda District, by a detachment under Lieutenant Roome, 10th Bombay Native Infantry.

His Excellency in Council desires to record his appreciation of the spirit and gallantry on this occasion of Lieutenant Roome, who commanded, and of Lieutenant Bradford, of Mayne's Horse; and his approval of the conduct of all concerned in this affair.

No. 2.

Brigadier-General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., Commanding Gwalior Division, to the Chief of the Staff.

Head Quarters, Simla, Morar, June 15, 1859.

SIR,

No. 395.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, a report of a success gained over the rebels, under Adil Mahomed Khan, in the Basoda District, by Lieutenant Roome, of the 10th Bombay Native Infantry, whom I had sent out in command of a small column.

I beg to recommend Lieutenant Roome to his Lordship's favourable notice, as a most promising officer, of much spirit and intelligence. His exertions in the field were continued when he should have been in sick quarters, and I regret to learn that he has suffered severely in consequence.

Lieutenant Bradford, in charge of the Detachment Mayne's Horse, has, on several previous occasions, been very favourably reported to me.

I have called on Lieutenant Roome for a more particular report of the services of the native officers, with a view to bring them to his Lordship's notice.

Although the regiment has been so lately raised; the men have never lost an opportunity of distinguishing themselves.

I have, &c.,
R. NAPIER.

No. 3.

Lieutenant F. Roome, 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, Commanding Field Force, Basoda District, to Major Todd, Adjutant-General, Gwalior Division.

*Camp, Reechea,
May 16, 1859.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., Commanding Gwalior Division, that having heard that Adil Mahomed Khan was collecting a force in this neighbourhood for the purpose of attacking Basoda, I left Mungrowlie for this place with force as per margin.*

To deceive the enemy as to my intentions, I had already ordered supplies, &c., to be collected at Natarran and Aijdah, giving out that I was going that way.

I started yesterday at 1 A.M., halting during the heat of the day at Bhoraso, which I left again at 4 P.M.

Adil Mahomed Khan having influential friends in the Koorwac District, it was necessary to take a circuitous route to avoid villages supposed to be friendly to him. On the same account we had to refrain from crossing the Betwa till we reached Bhairkairie. This lengthened our route so considerably that we did not reach this place till about half an hour after daybreak, when we found that the enemy had left a few hours before.

Not being able to get any information from the villagers I divided the cavalry into three parties, to seek for the enemy's tracks. The party which I accompanied, consisting of forty of Mayne's Horse, under Lieutenant Bradford, came upon some fresh foot-prints on a jungle path leading towards Konda.

We proceeded along this road at a canter, and when we had gone about four miles, came suddenly upon a strong body of the enemy's cavalry, which we at once charged, cutting up many. They then fled in the Daumurrie direction. We pursued for some miles, killing some thirty-five and taking three or four prisoners. The remainder, only about twenty, then dispersed in the jungles in every direction, and our horses being too tired to pursue further, we returned to this place. The enemy were well mounted and well dressed (some in the scarlet of late Gwalior Contingent) and armed with percussion carbines and pistols.

Our prisoners report that Adil Mahomed Khan, Surferer Khan, and other chiefs of note were with this party, I very much fear, however, that the former effected his escape as a personage of apparently some importance managed to get away in spite of our endeavours to prevent him. He was exceedingly well mounted, yet I am confident that had our horses been a little fresher, we would have succeeded in catching him.

I cannot speak too highly of the behaviour of Mayne's Horse. These men had marched, since yesterday morning, a distance of sixty-four miles before coming upon the enemy, and yet they could not have charged with greater dash had their horses been fresh from the stables; this may partly be accounted for by the gallant manner in which they were led by Lieutenant Bradford, of whose excellent soldier-like qualities the General is no doubt aware, and whom I beg to bring again to his favourable notice. The following native officers particularly distinguished themselves by their gallantry in hand-to-hand conflicts. Ressaldar Indur Sing, Jemadar Gujur Sing, and Duffadar Luximon Sing. Gujur Sing was wounded by a carbine bullet in the breast, but, nothing daunted, cut down the man who fired at him. I am happy to say the wound is slight and he is doing well.

I regret exceedingly that circumstances prevented me from bringing into action and thus rewarding the men of the 10th Regiment Native Infantry for the fatigues and privations they had undergone. I cannot say too much in favour of the cheerfulness with which they, and indeed the whole force, bore every hardship, marching day and night, till the object for which we set out was accomplished.

The valuable services rendered to Government during this mutiny by Sir Soobah Ram Chunder Bajee Row are well known to the General, but not only were his exertions on this occasion as untiring as ever, but his gallantry in action was most conspicuous, he having been closely engaged several times.

Wamand Row Mhadow, Tehsildar of Basoda, deserves great credit for the accuracy of the information he procured.

I enclose a casualty list, which, I am happy to say is very small.

I have, &c.,

FORDS ROOME.

No. 791.—By desire of the Commander-in-Chief forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, for submission to His Excellency the Governor-General of India in Council, with an expression of Lord Clyde's approval.

On receipt of the detailed report alluded to by Brigadier-General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., his Lordship will not fail to bring to the special notice of Government, the services of the Native Officers, whose gallantry Lieutenant Roome so highly commends.

No. 1043 of 1859.—The term of service for which the Members of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry engaged being about to expire, and a large proportion having expressed a wish to be discharged, the Corps was ordered to Sultanpore, Benares, to be broken up.

The disbandment of the regiment is now in course of being carried into effect.

His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council, cannot allow the officers and men of this corps to separate, without expressing in General Orders his acknowledgement of the excellent services they have rendered, and his admiration of their endurance, and of their gallant bearing on the many occasions in which they have come in contact with the enemy.

The Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, formed in Calcutta in the summer of 1857, on the footing of a Volunteer Corps receiving pay, was, in October of that year, moved towards the scene of the disturbances, reaching RaneeGUNGE, it proceeded in pursuit of mutineers to Gya, and thence marched to Patna, and crossed into Tirhoot, in which district it was employed watching a body of rebels. Early in 1858, the regiment entered the Goruckpore District, and took up, alone at first, a bold position at Ahmora, distant only five miles from an overwhelming rebel force, themselves only two hundred in number; and they held for the greater part of that year, with the Goruckpore Field Force, important posts, and were, during that time, repeatedly engaged with the enemy.

In the cold season of 1858-59, the regiment was employed in the operations in the Baraitch District, in Oude, and finally it was engaged till recently, against the rebels on the Nepal Frontier.

The Gazettes of the 23rd March, 27th April, 11th May, 6th and 13th July, 13th August, 12th and 19th October, 23rd November, 1858, and 11th and 18th January, and 9th March, 1859, all testify that the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry have borne a distinguished part in the several operations therein recounted.

Long marches, exposure, fatigue, and harassing patrol and picket duties have from the first fallen to the lot of this young corps, and they have borne the whole in a truly soldier-like spirit.

The Governor-General in Council desires to convey to Major Richardson, C.B., and the brave

Officers and Men of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, a regiment of which all who have belonged to it may be proud, his best thanks for the good service they have rendered to the State, and in disbanding the corps which, from the 27th instant, will cease to belong to the Bengal Army, he wishes the members of it a hearty farewell.

No. 1053 of 1859.—His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following report from Major J. L. Vaughan, Commanding 5th Punjaub Rifles, of an action against a body of rebels in the Sunputtree Pass on the 18th June, 1859.

His Excellency in Council highly approves of the conduct of Major Vaughan and of the troops under his command in these operations.

SIR, No. 189.

A PORTION of the rebels under Baboo Purgun Sing, attacked by me on the 14th instant, at Khungra-ka-naka, found themselves cut off from the road to Deokurh by the rapid advance of the British troops, and saved themselves by quitting the road and hiding in the dense forest to the west of it. These fugitives were joined by the Akonah Rajah's people on the flight of the latter before Captain Cleveland's detachment, and by a fresh party from Deokurh, and the whole under the leaders as per margin, * located themselves in the Sunputtree Pass, which is about 10 miles west of the Khungra Pass, and the same distance from Musha. I heard of this assembly whilst encamped at Musha, with the troops, as per margin, † and immediately arranged an attack for the following morning, 18th June.

2. The Sunputtree Pass leads like the Khungra Pass, from the Trans-Raptee country into Deokurh (Nepaul), but it is accounted a very difficult one, and is only used by the cowherds of the district, who pasture their cattle according to the season, either on the Nepaul or British side of the mountains. It is approached through about six miles of the densest Terye Forest, and is simply the bed of a mountain torrent, paved with huge boulder stones. A few resolute men could hold it against an army. The rebel encampment was in a small open clearing on the edge of the torrent about four miles from the commencement of the forest.

3. The troops marched from Musha at two A.M., in the strictest silence, and entered the forest unchallenged, soon after daybreak. After proceeding about three miles into the forest, the advanced guard was seen by a picquet of the enemy, and concealment being no longer an object, the troops were urged forward in view to allow the rebels as little notice of our approach as possible.

4. The rebel encampment was found deserted, and here I left the cavalry, their services being no longer required, owing to the nature of the road. With the infantry I pushed on in pursuit as fast as possible. The tracks left by the rebels showed both cavalry and infantry, and numbers of the latter were soon overtaken and slain, but I felt that the real prize was the cavalry, and, as the difficulties of the road increased at each step, made certain of eventually overtaking them. Finding that we gained upon them, they attempted to elude us by turning up the bed of a ravine to the right of the road, ignorant that there was no exit at the other end. Here they were overtaken, and every man slain, upwards of 25 horses, and 30 ponies laden with baggage, falling into the hands of the Punjab Rifles.

5. The pursuit was continued in all directions for fully five miles beyond the rebel encampment, and great slaughter made. I am confident that upwards of one hundred rebels must have fallen. When the troops were utterly exhausted by the combined effects of distance, heat, and the suffocating atmosphere of the Terye Forest, after heavy rain, the pursuit ceased, and the troops marched back to the camp at Musha, which they reached about three P.M.

6. The behaviour of the men of the 5th Punjab Rifles was beyond all praise, and it was emulated by that of a small party of the Oude Police (Millett's Jezzailchees), which happened to be at Musha on a special service, and which I took with me to stop a road by which I thought it probable the rebels would try to escape. I beg to solicit the 3rd Class of the Order of Merit for Havildar Moosa Khan, of the 5th Punjab Rifles, who particularly distinguished himself in this affair, and also for Subadar Nehall Sing, of the same regiment, who, in my presence, slew three of the rebels in single combat.

7. I have no casualties to report.

8. In conclusion, I venture to hope that the affair now reported, in conjunction with that of the Khungra Pass on the 14th instant, will prove to the remaining rebels the utter hopelessness of prolonged resistance. inasmuch as they have seen that the British troops can and will attack them in their selected fastnesses of the frontier range of hills, undeterred alike by dread of the rainy season and of the deadly Terye Forest.

SIR, No. 278.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of Major-General Sir J. H. Grant, K.C.B., Commanding Oude Division, a report from Major Vaughan, who had been directed in co-operation with Captain Cleveland, to drive out a party of rebels who had established themselves near Musha, in the Trans-Raptee District, and in so doing, I would beg to bring to the Major-General's notice the skilful and energetic manner in which this duty has been performed by Major Vaughan and Captain Cleveland, and the troops under their command. I beg to recommend, that the mention made of Subadar Hubeeb Khan, of the 5th Punjaub Rifles, should be brought to favourable consideration.

No. 11.

Major J. L. Vaughan, 5th Punjaub Rifles, Commanding Field Detachment, to Major M. Dillon, Major of Brigade, Trans-Gogra, Gondah.

*Camp Bunhonee, Trans-Raptee,
June 15, 1859.*

SIR No. 187.

IN obedience to the instructions of Colonel Holdich, C.B., Commanding Trans Gogra, dated the 11th instant, directing me to expel from the British territory a body of rebels believed to be near Musha, I marched on the night of the 12th instant from Sidonia Ghaut to that place, thirty miles, with the troops as per margin,* and was there joined by Captain Cleveland, commanding a field detachment at Bhinga, with a portion of his force, as per margin.†

2. The body of rebels against whom I was to operate proved to be eighteen or twenty miles east of Musha, in the neighbourhood of the Khungra-ka-Naka, as it is called, a well-known pass through the first range of hills into the Deokurk Valley (Nepaul). Accordingly I marched, on the night of the 13th June, to Bunhonee, late a police post, fourteen miles, and leaving the baggage at that village, made the following arrangements consequent on information there received.

3. Captain Cleveland, with three companies Moradabad Levy and fifty men of Hodson's Horse, was directed to attack the Rajah of Akonah, who was encamped, with two hundred followers, at Peeprah, on the edge of the forest, at foot of the hills, three miles north of Bunhonee, whilst I, with the remainder of the force, should attack the main body of rebels, under one Purgun Sing, at the village of Bunkutta, where the Khungra-ka Naka, which it is to be understood is the bed of a hill torrent dry, except after heavy rain, emerges from the forest.

4. A separate report of Captain Cleveland's proceedings, which were very satisfactory, is annexed.

5. The force under my personal command got under cover of the forest, at the foot of the hills, about four miles north-east of Bunhonee, and here I left the cavalry, with orders to halt until I should open fire, and then press on, by the best road they could find, to Bunkutta. With the infantry and twenty men 1st Punjaub Cavalry I marched, under cover of the forest and parallel to the hills in view, to cut off the rebels from their retreat to Deokurk; and fall upon their rear; but their picquets had seen us before we entered the forest, and thus my intentions were to a certain extent frustrated, the main body of the rebels being in retreat, covered by a strong rear guard, when we reached their encampment. The Punjab Rifles, however, supported by the Moradabad Levy and the party of the 1st Punjaub Cavalry, followed the rebels with the greatest spirit, and inflicted considerable loss upon them, driving them in confusion through the pass for upwards of four miles. The pursuit never slackened for a moment whilst the rebels held together in a body, and when they broke and dispersed in the dense forest, they were followed in all directions by small parties of the Punjaub Rifles and Moradabad Levy, some of which did not rejoin for many hours afterwards.

6. I make no attempt to estimate the number of rebels slain, the immense extent of ground gone over by the troops in pursuit, the dense jungle, and the ravines with which it was intersected, anything like accuracy impossible.

7. The troops rested for a few hours in the standing camp, constructed by the rebels at Bunkutto, previous to burning it, and then marched back to Bunhonee, six miles.

8. The exertions made by the troops of both arms have been most meritorious, and I trust they will meet with the approbation of superior authority. The Punjab Rifles marched upwards of sixty miles between the evening of the 12th and noon of the 14th instant, besides pursuing the enemy for some miles at the double.

9. I wish to bring to particular notice the gallant and daring conduct of Subadar Hubeeb Khan, of the 5th Punjaub Rifles, who was ever foremost in the pursuit, and was several times engaged hand-to-hand. I consider him most deserving of the 3rd Class of the Order of Merit.

10. Captain Cleveland, 98th Regiment, who conducted the separate attack upon the Rajah of Akonah's party, rendered valuable service, and I have to thank him for the cordial assistance I have received from him during the present service. My thanks are also due to Lieutenant Grey and Ensign Gill, who directed the Punjaub Rifles and Moradabad Levy, respectively, in the attack under my personal command.

11. I am not aware of any rebels being now in the British territory, between Serdonia Ghaut and Toolsepore, and I therefore trust that the service entrusted to me will be considered to have been satisfactorily carried out.

12. I enclose a casualty return.

Captain G. Cleveland, 98th Regiment, Commanding Field Detachment, to Major J. L. Vaughan, Commanding a Combined Force.

Camp, Bunhooee, 12 Koss N.E. of Singa, June 15, 1859.

AGREEABLY with your instructions I proceeded yesterday in command of a detachment, strength as per margin,* from the village of Chowdree Dea towards Tipra, bearing due north of it, where Moona Sing, the Rajah of Akonah, with 200 Tilungas, were reported to be huted, and living in comfort. I made a circuitous route through the jungle, avoiding the footpath leading to the enemy's position, with a view of driving it eastward, towards your force, according to arrangements.

Soon after penetrating the jungle, which was nothing more than brushwood, the enemy's picket, infantry, was discovered, at a distance off, and a party of cavalry galloped to the front in full hopes of cutting it off, when, unfortunately, it was pulled up by a deep ravine, the other side of which the enemy's picket had been posted.

On moving on to Pipree, to the enemy's encampment, I found it deserted; and it was evident from a quantity of things, arms, accoutrements, and large supplies of rice and flour, strewn about on the ground, that he had been alarmed, and had taken a hasty departure. On being assured by a herdsman, that the Rajah, mounted on an elephant, with the majority of his force, had gone westward, I pressed on the cavalry, who, however, could make no way, owing to the dense part of the jungle and a serpentine ravine impeding progress; while the enemy, concealed, opened fire upon them.

I brought up my infantry in front, and driving everything before it, accounted for all stragglers. The enemy's fire soon ceased; and pressing onwards, we came across arms, accoutrements, and brass utensils, that had been flung away; and continuing for five miles, we captured the Rajah's horse, palanquin, and two camels heavily laden with all his property, consisting of shawls, muslins clothing apparel, and cooking utensils. The enemy having been entirely dispersed, and the track of the elephant having been lost, I collected my force and retired through the jungle, making for Pipree. On destroying the enemy's huts as well as everything found there about, and a tiger, fastened by a chain near the Rajah's dwelling, I moved off, and reached camp at 1.30 P.M.

The enemy's loss was about fifteen men, and it would have been certainly greater, but for the dense jungle and the knowledge of it, which particularly favoured it. I am happy to say I had only one horse wounded.

In conclusion, I have the gratification of bestowing much credit due to the infantry and cavalry, and I would make known the length of time they were under arms, thirteen hours, during which time they could not have gone less than thirty miles.

I have, &c.

SIR, Lahar, June 28, 1859.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the officer commanding at Calpee, the following particulars of a skirmish with the rebels, under Dowlut Sing, at the village of Indhoorkhee. Having received intelligence that the rebels to the number of 500 were occupying Indhoorkhee, and that in consequence the Dāk to Gwalior was closed, I determined to make an attempt to open the road.

Accordingly I left Lahar, on the morning of the 27th, with troops as per margin,* reaching Indhoorkhee about eight in the morning.

The enemy on our appearance manned the fort walls, as if with the intention of making a stand there. They however precipitately abandoned them, as we drew nearer, and fearing lest they should slip altogether out of our hands, I advanced with the cavalry at a gallop.

The village was deserted, but on entering the ravines a smart fire was opened on us from both flanks, and I observed the enemy in considerable force, occupying the steep sides of the ravines.

The ground being utterly unsuited for cavalry, I retired out of fire, and the infantry which had by this time arrived, advanced to the attack under the able guidance of Lieutenant Cock. They drove the enemy from one position to another, pursuing them from the distance of nearly a mile and a half, when finding from the nature of the ground that this ineffectual skirmishing might be interminably continued, and having achieved the object intended, I returned to Indhoorkhee, and from thence marched back to Jatepora.

Lieutenant T. H. Lewin, Commanding Detachment District Field Force, to the Adjutant of the 31st Regiment of Native Light Infantry.

SIR, Camp Jeitpore, July 7, 1859.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Officer commanding the regiment, that, in consequence of information received from Mr. Assistant-Magistrate Wigram, that a body of rebels were in the jungle, north-east of Jheejun, I marched thither at 11 o'clock P.M., on the night of the 5th, with the force as per margin.* After marching some eight miles we arrived at the outskirts of the thick jungle, in which the rebels were said to be encamped, and I here halted for a short time to rest both men and horses.

Learning that the position which was held by the enemy was totally impracticable for cavalry, and having further ascertained the jungle was more open to the east and west, I despatched the sowars in two detachments, as per margin,† one to each flank, with orders to be on the alert, patrolling the edge of the jungle, and to cut up any fugitives that might attempt to escape in those directions. Proceeding about five miles further through jungle of so dense and thorny a nature that it was with great difficulty that we made any way at all, we came upon their advanced picquet and drove it in without loss on either side; pushing on with every possible despatch we surprised their camp situated on a very rocky and difficult hill, well-known as one of their favourite resorts; after a short stand made at a wall of rocks, about six feet in height, which they had raised across the path, they fled precipitately through the jungle in every direction; owing to the early hour at which this took place (viz., about an hour before sunrise) and the notorious denseness of the Jheejhun jungle, I was unable to pursue them as efficiently as I could have wished, but many I believe were shot down and wounded during their flight. My own casualties were 1 sepoy, Mattadeen Doobay, of the 5th Company, 31st Regiment Native Light Infantry, killed. The completeness of the surprise may be imagined, as more than 100 pairs of shoes, together with bedding of every description, were left scattered over the ground of their late camp, the paths of the jungle on every side were strewn with cloths and weapons, which they abandoned in their flight. Part of them attempted to escape on the east of the jungle and were attacked by the Ressaldar of the Police, whom I had detached to that point; three of them were killed, and the rest effected their escape back into the jungle, where it was impossible for cavalry to pursue.

The main body of the rebels retreated in the direction of Jheejhun, where they ought to have been met by Captain Scott, of the 17th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, with his detachment; but owing to some mistake as to procuring guides, I regret to say, that their retreat in that direction was unmolested.

On re-assembling my men on the hill of Kalee Paharee, where the enemy's camp had been, I saw a small force of about fifty men as well as I could judge, for they were more than a mile off, advancing towards the hill from the north-east; from the regularity of their movements, as well as from the glittering of their fixed bayonets, I supposed them to be the detachment of the 17th Madras Native Infantry, although coming from a different direction to that in which we expected them; but this morning a letter from Captain Scott states that, owing to the reasons stated above, he did not move from his original position at Pipera. I can therefore only conjecture, that it was the party of rebel sepoys who are said to accompany Desput in all his wanderings. I consider that the effect produced on the rebels by this affair will be most beneficial, as showing them that the densest jungle and most favourable position, affords them but little more shelter than the open plain.

* 31st Regiment Native Light Infantry—1 subadar, 2 jemadars, 7 havildars, 3 naiks, 1 bugler, 51 sepoy. Military Police Sowars—1 ressaldar, 1 jemadar, 2 duffadars, 33 troopers.

† 1st Detachment—1 Ressaldar, 1 duffadar, 18 troopers. 2nd Detachment—1 jemadar, 1 duffadar, 15 troopers.

Their numbers, I am informed, were from 4 to 500 men, and it is supposed under the command of Desput himself, as papers directed to him and some bearing his signature, together with one or two articles which were identified as belonging to him, were found in their camp.

They are said to have carried some wounded with them in their retreat.

My best thanks are due to Mr. P. Wigram, who was to the front during the whole affair, and afforded me every assistance.

FORWARDED to the Secretary of the Government of India, Military Department, for the information of his Excellency the Governor-General, with Lord Clyde's approval.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief,

Officiating Adjutant-General of the Army.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same Schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year: provided that, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Shotter Mill specified in the said Schedule, the grant of twenty pounds per annum recommended to be made to the said perpetual curacy shall cease and determine on and after the first day of May, or the first day of November, as the case may be, next following the date of the expiration of the existing lease of the rectorial tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes arising within the parish of Frensham, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of Winchester.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit; and that, if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that, instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice or church, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the Common Fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same Schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each year.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend John Williams, clerk, the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Bishton, otherwise Bishopston, in the county of Monmouth, and diocese of Llandaff, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the grant of sixty pounds per annum, which in the said First Schedule is set opposite to the name of the said benefice of Bishton, otherwise Bishopston, shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of six pounds, payable by us to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy, in respect of the estates within the said parish formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Llandaff; and we also recommend and propose that the soil of the churchyard of the said parish, lately forming part of the estates of the said archdeaconry, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Bishton, otherwise Bishopston.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands, cottage, hereditaments, and premises situate within the parish of Bromyard, in the county and diocese of Hereford, and described in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, with their appurtenances and all our estate and interest therein, shall, by the authority aforesaid, and in like manner, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Bromyard.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit; and that, if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice or church, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Wallsend, in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham, and for constituting two separate districts for spiritual purposes out of the same parish.

"Whereas all the separate estates and endowments formerly belonging to the twelfth canonry in the cathedral church of Durham have become vested in us under the provisions and for the purposes of the said first-named Act, and such estates and endowments comprise (inter alia) certain tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, arising in the said parish of Wallsend, and the same are now in possession:

"And whereas, with a view to better enabling us to carry into effect the proposals herein-after made, the Reverend Henry Douglas, canon of the seventh canonry in the said cathedral church, has surrendered and conveyed to us all his estate and interest as canon of such last-mentioned canonry of and in a certain tithe rentcharge arising in the said parish of Wallsend, of the annual amount of one hundred and ninety-three pounds ten shillings and sixpence:

"And whereas the present endowment of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Wallsend is of small amount, and it appears to us to be expedient that the same should be augmented in manner herein-after mentioned:

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the said parish of Wallsend herein-after mentioned and described, (such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship,) should be constituted separate districts for spiritual purposes in manner herein-after set forth:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas, Bishop of Durham, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Wallsend which is described in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, and also all that part of the same parish which is described in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed (all which parts, together with the several boundaries thereof are respectively delineated and set forth on the maps or plans hereunto also annexed, and are thereon coloured red and green, and marked with the names herein-after recommended to be given to the same respectively), shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, be respectively constituted, and become and be separate districts for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be respectively named "The District of Willington," and, "The District of Howden Panns."

"And we further recommend and propose, that the minister of the said district of Willington so recommended to be constituted as aforesaid, and, so soon as the same shall have become, according to the provisions of the herein secondly named Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, the perpetual curate thereof shall be permanently endowed with the portion of the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, so arising in the said townships of Willington and Wallsend, as aforesaid, which is set forth and described in the Third Schedule hereunto annexed; and that such portion of the said tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, and all our estate and interest therein, shall accordingly, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred and secured to such minister or perpetual curate, so soon as he shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors.

“And we further recommend and propose, that the minister of the said district of Howden Panns, so recommended to be constituted as aforesaid, and so soon as the same shall have become, according to the provisions of the herein secondly-named Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, the perpetual curate thereof shall be permanently endowed with the portion of the tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, so arising in the said township of Willington as aforesaid, which is set forth and described in the Fourth Schedule hereunto annexed; and that such portion of the said tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, and all our estate and interest therein, shall accordingly, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred and secured to such minister or perpetual curate so soon as he shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors.

“And we further recommend and propose, that the portion of the tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, so arising within the said township of Wallsend as aforesaid, which is set forth and described in the Fifth Schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our estate and interest therein, shall in like manner and by the authority aforesaid be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Wallsend; and that the same portion of the said tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes to be so vested as last mentioned shall be and be held to be in discharge of, and full satisfaction for, any claim which the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Wallsend, or his successors, may hereafter have, under the provisions of the herein secondly-named Act, to compensation for loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments, in respect of the formation of the said districts herein-before recommended to be constituted.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy seven, and of an Act of the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the tenth and eleventh years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, relating to the dioceses of Saint Asaph and Bangor.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that the territorial alterations in the boundaries of the said dioceses of Saint Asaph and Bangor which are contemplated by the said lastly recited Act should now be carried into effect.

"And whereas, since the passing of the said recited Acts, the Bishoprick of Bangor has been vacated.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, the said diocese of Saint Asaph shall consist of the whole of the counties of Flint and Denbigh, and such parts of the counties of Salop and Montgomery, as are now in the said diocese of Saint Asaph, except the Deanery of Ceifeiliog, in the said county of Montgomery, of the parishes of Eglwys Rhos or Llanrhos, Llangwstenyn, Colwyn, and Llysfa, in the county of Carnarvon, and of the Deanery of Penllyn and Edeirnon, in the county of Merioneth.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said diocese of Bangor shall consist of the whole counties of Anglesea and Carnarvon, except the said parishes of Eglwys Rhos or Llanrhos, Llangwstenyn, Colwyn and Llysfa, now in the diocese of Saint Asaph, and of the whole of the county of Merioneth, except the Deanery of Penllyn and Edeirnon, now in the diocese of Saint Asaph, and of the Deaneries of Ceifeiliog and Arwstley, otherwise Arnsey, in the county of Montgomery, and that the said Deaneries of Ceifeiliog and Arwstley, otherwise Arnsey, shall be included in and form part of the Archdeaconry of Merioneth, in the said diocese of Bangor.

"And we further recommend and propose that all parishes and places, locally situate in the said dioceses of Saint Asaph and Bangor, and of the several archdeaconries thereof respectively, and all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects, locally situate within the limits of such parishes and places respectively, shall be respectively under and subject to, the jurisdiction and authority of the bishops of the said dioceses and of the archdeacons of the several archdeaconries of such dioceses within the limits of which dioceses and archdeaconries they shall respectively be situate, and to no other ecclesiastical jurisdiction whatsoever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the dioceses of Bangor and Saint Asaph.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Warkworth, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, and also out of the extra-parochial place known as Brainshaugh or Brainshaugh township, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the said parish of Warkworth is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of such parish, and also of the said extra-parochial place known as Brainshaugh or Brainshaugh township hereinafter mentioned and described (which parts do not at present contain within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas, Bishop of Durham, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Warkworth, and also all that extra-parochial place known as Brainshaugh or Brainshaugh township described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which parts together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Acklington.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, in each and every year, to the minister or perpetual curate for the time being of the said district or new parish, the annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister or of such perpetual curate as aforesaid, as the case may be, and that, in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between, and paid to, the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“And whereas the Most Noble Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, has paid to us a sum of three thousand one hundred pounds, being the value of certain outstanding leasehold interests in certain tithes arising within the said parish of Warkworth, the reversion of which is vested in us, but which tithes will not become applicable towards meeting local claims thereon until the Bishoprick of Carlisle shall have been endowed with the real estate, and the said Duke has also undertaken to provide a church for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants of the said district so recommended to be constituted as aforesaid.

“We, therefore, further recommend and propose that the right of patronage of, and the nomination of, the minister or curate to the said district or new parish of Acklington shall be assigned to, and vested in, the said Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, his heirs, and assigns.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament, and especially the substitution for such annual payment by us as aforesaid of any equivalent, lands, tithes, or hereditaments, which may be suitable for the endowment of the said district or new parish.

“The SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing scheme.

“All that part of the parish of Warkworth, in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham, which is comprised within the townships of Acklington and Acklington Park, and also all that extra-parochial place which is known as Brainshaugh or Brainshaugh township, in the same county and diocese.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, been duly delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the parish of Warkworth (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have severally consented to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

C. A. Hamilton.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property, formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, and now vested in us.

“Whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the following month of July, certain hereditaments and premises formerly belonging to the said Bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, and more particularly described in the schedule annexed to the said Order of your Majesty in Council, became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases, or grant or grants thereof.

“And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

“We therefore humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said hereditaments and premises heretofore belonging to the said Bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of King's Langley, in the county of Hertford and diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being is, in right of his see, patron of the vicarage and benefice of King's Langley aforesaid, and also of the rectory and benefice of Latchingdon, in the county of Essex and diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas the present endowment of the said vicarage is very inadequate to the requirements of the parish, and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the following arrangement should be made for apportioning the income of the said rectory between the rector thereof and the vicar of the said vicarage.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of The Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, as such patron as aforesaid, and also as such Archbishop, and of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Rochester (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the next avoidance of the said rectory of Latchingdon, there shall be paid by the next succeeding rector thereof, and his successors, rectors of the said rectory, out of the revenues of the said rectory, to the vicar of the said vicarage of King's Langley for the time being, the annual sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, clear of all deductions except income or property tax; and that such sum shall be paid by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of November and the first day of May in each and every year, the first of such half yearly payments, or a proportionate part thereof, to be due and payable on the first day of November, or the first day of May, as the case may be, which shall happen next after the next avoidance of the said rectory of Latchingdon; and we also recommend and propose that such annual sum, and each and every instalment thereof, be hereby deemed to be charged upon all the lands, tithes, tenements and hereditaments, whatsoever and wheresoever situate, to the said rectory belonging, and that the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage, who shall be entitled to receive such payments, shall have all legal remedies of, and for recovering and enforcing payment of the same.

"And we further recommend and propose that if a vacancy in the said vicarage shall happen, on any day other than the first day of November, or the first day of May, the annual sum or stipend hereby recommended to be made payable, shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the vicar, making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the vicar succeeding to the said vicarage.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

C. A. Hamilton.

By virtue of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to be served in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

Oats, 500 quarters; one-half to be delivered in two weeks and the remainder in two weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 150 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the oats (not less than two quarts), of the cocoa (not less than two pounds), and of the tea (not less than two pounds from the bonded warehouse), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the samples tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.
