

sentatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

"And whereas the Most Noble Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, has paid to us a sum of three thousand one hundred pounds, being the value of certain outstanding leasehold interests in certain tithes arising within the said parish of Warkworth, the reversion of which is vested in us, but which tithes will not become applicable towards meeting local claims thereon until the Bishoprick of Carlisle shall have been endowed with the real estate, and the said Duke has also undertaken to provide a church for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants of the said district so recommended to be constituted as aforesaid.

"We, therefore, further recommend and propose that the right of patronage of, and the nomination of, the minister or curate to the said district or new parish of Acklington shall be assigned to, and vested in, the said Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, his heirs, and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament, and especially the substitution for such annual payment by us as aforesaid of any equivalent, lands, tithes, or hereditaments, which may be suitable for the endowment of the said district or new parish.

"The SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing scheme.

"All that part of the parish of Warkworth, in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham, which is comprised within the townships of Acklington and Acklington Park, and also all that extra-parochial place which is known as Brainshaugh or Brainshaugh township, in the same county and diocese."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, been duly delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the parish of Warkworth (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have severally consented to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property, formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the following month of July, certain hereditaments and premises formerly belonging to the said Bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, and more particularly described in the schedule annexed to the said Order of your Majesty in Council, became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases, or grant or grants thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said hereditaments and premises heretofore belonging to the said Bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.
