And whereas another Act of Parliament was passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, by a certain Warrant in writing, duly made and bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 21st day of July, 1857, did order, direct and declare (amongst other things) that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, Colonial, or foreign, therein mentioned and described, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom, and any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the schedule A to the said now reciting Warrant annexed; and that all such respective packets should be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, thereafter respectively mentioned and contained, and that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof respectively should be that which was mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively in the said schedule A, and that all such respective packets so transmitted should be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage thereafter mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in further exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said several before-recited Acts of Parliament, by two other Warrants in writing duly made, and bearing date respectively at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, one of the said two last-mentioned Warrants the 19th day of June, 1858, and the other of the said two last-mentioned Warrants the 1st day of July, 1859, and respectively reciting (amongst other Warrants) the said hereinbefore-recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, did make and declare certain other regulations, orders, directions, and conditions therein mentioned, respecting certain of the said packets in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, authorized to be transmitted by the post as aforesaid.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two hereinbefore-recited Acts of Parliament or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order, direct, and declare, as follows :

3. Every letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum) partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, relating to letters posted and addressed in like manner.

6. Provided always, that in all cases where any packet may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant ; and any such packet shall be so transmitted, as not to be transmitted in conformity with the provisions thereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, herein contained or referred to, and shall by reason thereof have become liable, under or by virtue of this Warrant, to be charged with the like rate or amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, or with any higher rate or amount of postage, the Postmaster-General shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, at his discretion, either to charge any such packet with the rate or amount of postage to which it shall have become liable, under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, or to charge any such packet with any other rate or amount of postage which he shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet shall have become liable under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with, if transmitted in conformity with the provisions thereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein contained or referred to.

7. The rates of postage chargeable on books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

8. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant, shall be construed in like manner as the like terms and expressions used in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, so far as they are applicable to, and consistent with, and are not contrary or repugnant to, the intent and meaning of this Warrant.
