

amounting altogether to 799*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.* shall be appropriated as an additional endowment of the Norrisian Professorship either on the next vacancy of the Lady Margaret's Professorship, or as soon as the present Lady Margaret's Professor shall give his assent to this appropriation; provided that from the time of such appropriation, or as soon as the present Norrisian Professor shall give his assent to the acceptance of the same, the new Statute for the Norrisian Professorship shall come into operation.

III.—Statute for the Norrisian Professorship of Divinity.

1. The provisions prescribed by Mr. Norris, for the regulation of the Professorship founded by him, and subsequently adopted by Dr. Chapman and Lord Wodehouse in their benefactions thereto, excepting so far as they are re-enacted by this Statute, are hereby repealed.
2. The present and future Norrisian Professors shall be entitled to hold the Professorship for life.
3. The electors to this Professorship shall be the Heads of the several Colleges of the University.
4. In case of a vacancy of the Professorship, the Vice-Chancellor shall give public notice of the vacancy, and of the day for electing a new Professor, by fixing a written or printed paper on the door of the Public Schools as soon as the vacancy is made known to him, or on the first day of the following Term, according as the vacancy occurs in Term time or out of Term time; and the day of election shall not be sooner than fourteen days, nor later than twenty-eight days, after the date of the notice.
5. No election of a Professor shall take place unless eleven at least of the electors are present and vote, and that person shall be elected who has a majority of all the votes; and if after two scrutines no person has such a majority of votes, a third scrutiny shall take place, when that person shall be elected who has the greatest number of votes; but if, in this last scrutiny, the same number of votes are given for two or more persons, which are also more than those given for any other candidate, that one of the two or more such persons shall be elected for whom the Master of Trinity, or in his absence the Provost of King's, or in the absence of both the Master of Gonville and Caius, shall give his casting vote.
6. It shall be the duty of the Professor to give lectures in every year, and to order as well the subject of such lectures as the times and places of delivery, according to schemes to be approved by the Board of Theological Studies to be hereafter constituted.
7. It shall be the duty of the Professor to reside in the University, within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church, eighteen weeks at least during Term time in every year, six of such weeks being in the Michaelmas Term, and the remaining twelve being in the Lent and Easter Terms.
8. It shall be the duty of the Professor to deliver to the Vice-Chancellor once in every year, before the end of the Easter Term, a statement in writing of the number of lectures given by him during the preceding year, and of the times of delivery, together with the number of weeks in each of the three Terms during which he has resided within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church.

9. If the Professor be elected Vice-Chancellor of the University, a deputy shall be appointed to discharge the duties of the Professorship for that year, such deputy to be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and to receive one half of the clear annual income of the Professor.
10. If by reason of sickness, necessary absence from the University, or other sufficient cause, the Professor desire to have a deputy to discharge the duties of the Professorship, he shall be required to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 7, of the Statutes of the University; such consent to be given in writing, and to specify the time for which the deputy is to be appointed; and such deputy shall in every case be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third or more than one half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed.
11. If it be certified to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons that the Professor is become unable to discharge his duties by age, ill health, or other serious impediment, and if the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons shall deem this inability to be sufficiently proved, they shall have the power of requiring a deputy to be appointed for any time, not exceeding twelve calendar months, which appointment, if necessary, may be renewed from time to time; and the deputy in every such case shall be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third nor more than one half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed. If the Professor fail to nominate a deputy within three months after being required to do so, or if the Senate do not approve of the person nominated by him, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the like approval.
12. If it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting as aforesaid, that the Professor has been wilfully neglectful of his duties or guilty of gross or habitual immorality, it shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons to admonish the Professor, or to deprive him of his office, as the case may seem to them to require; and if the sentence of deprivation be thus passed upon him, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void; but in every case, whether of admonition or deprivation, an appeal to the University shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8, of the Statutes of the University.
13. It shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor, if at any time he shall see occasion to do so, to require the Professor to subscribe to the three articles of the Thirty-sixth Canon in the form prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Candidates for Degrees in Divinity; and if, after three requisitions, the Professor shall refuse so to subscribe, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void.
14. The Professorship shall not be tenable with a Deanery, or with any ecclesiastical preferment with cure of souls.
