

War-Office, 27th April, 1860.

THE Queen having been graciously pleased, by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 13th of December, 1858, to declare that Non-Military Persons who, as Volunteers, have borne arms against the Mutineers, both at Lucknow and elsewhere, during the late operations in India, shall be considered as eligible to receive the decoration of the Victoria Cross, subject to the rules and ordinances already made and ordained for the government thereof, provided that it be established in any case that the person was serving under the orders of a General or other Officer in Command of Troops in the Field, when he performed the Act of Bravery for which it is proposed to confer the decoration;—Her Majesty has accordingly been pleased to signify Her intention to confer this high distinction on the undermentioned Gentleman, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of an Act of Bravery performed by him in India, as recorded against his name; viz.:

Name and Designation.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Mr. George Bell Chicken, Indian Naval Brigade. Date of Act of Bravery, 27th September, 1858	For great gallantry on the 27th September, 1858, at Suhejnee, near Peroo, in having charged into the middle of a considerable number of the rebels, who were preparing to rally and open fire upon the scattered pursuers. They were surrounded on all sides, but, fighting desperately, Mr. Chicken succeeded in killing five before he was cut down himself. He would have been cut to pieces, had not some of the men of the 1st Bengal Police and 3rd Sikh Irregular Cavalry, dashed into the crowd to his rescue, and routed it, after killing several of the Enemy.

Whitehall, April 25, 1860.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto George West Piggott, of Harrogate, in the West Riding of the county of York, Doctor of Medicine, Master of Arts, and Foundation Fellow of St. Peter's College in the University of Cambridge, and Member of the Royal College of Physicians of London, and to Anne Hitchin, the widow and relict of Ward Dyson Hitchin, late of Halifax, in the said West Riding of the county of York, Gentleman, deceased, and only surviving child of James Royston, and sister and sole heir of Aquila-Edward Royston, both late of Halifax aforesaid, Merchants, deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that from and immediately after the solemnization of their intended marriage they may take and use the surname of Royston in addition to and before that of Piggott:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.
