Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of May, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy

Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows; viz.:

In BEVERLEY Minster Churchyard from the first day of May to the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

In the churchyard of KIRKBY MISPERTON from the first April to the first October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

In the old churchyard of LLANDAFF from the first May to the first June.

In the churchyard of MIDDLEWICH from the first June to the first October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

In the churchyard of the parish of ODIHAM from the first day of May to the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

In the churchyard of PITTINGTON, in the county of Durham, to the first January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the churchyard of Holy Trinity, ROTHERHITHE, to the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, on the same conditions as those contained in the Order in Council of the thirteenth May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

In the burial-grounds of YEOVIL to the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of May, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications:

GRINTON, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith in the parish church of Grinton, in the county of York, and in the Independent Chapel, Reath, and from and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the Parish Churchyard and in the burial-ground of Saint Mary's Chapel, Muker, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, in which each body shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.
