MEMORANDUM.

The 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th Oxfordshire Rifle Volunteer Corps have been formed into a Battalion for drill and administrative purposes, instead of administrative purposes only, as at present, with a Staff consisting of a Lieutenant-Colonel and an Adjutant. The Battalion to be numbered the 2nd in the county.

Whitehall, June 19, 1860.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Bouskell, of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, Gentleman, to be a Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery in England.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 15.) ATLANTIC OCEAN—WEST COAST OF SPAIN.

Fixed Light at Corcubion.

THE Minister of Marine at Madrid has given notice, that on and after the 31st day of July next, a light will be exhibited on Cape Cé, which forms the western point of entrance of the Ria de Corcubion, in the Province of Coruña, on the West Coast of Spain.

The light is a fixed red light, placed at an elevation of 82 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in clear weather at a distance of 8 miles.

The light apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the fifth order.

The tower is octagonal, of granite, 25 feet above the ground, and adjoins the back of the keeper's dwelling, which is painted white. The lantern also is white. The building stands 36 yards from the extremity of the Cape, in lat.  $42^{\circ} 54' 50''$  N., long.  $9^{\circ} 10' 6''$  West of Greenwich.

MEDITERRANEAN—BALEARES ISLES.

Fixed Light on Cape Cala Figuera.

Also, that on the same day a fixed white light, placed at a height of 116 feet above the mean level of the sea, and visible 12 miles, will be exhibited from Cape Cala Figuera, which forms the western point of entrance of Palma Bay, on the south-west coast of Mallorca or Majorca, in the Baleares Isles.

The light apparatus is dioptric or by lenses of the fifth order, and the light illuminates an arc of  $295^{\circ}$  seaward.

The tower is circular, 45 feet high, and painted light yellow; the lantern is octagonal, and white. It rises from the middle of the keeper's dwelling, and which is square, and of the same colour as the tower, with green persianas or shutters. The building stands at 108 yards from the extremity of the Cape, in lat.  $39^{\circ} 27' 42''$  N., long.  $2^{\circ} 33' 54''$  East of Greenwich.

Extension of Almeria Mole.

The Captain of the Port of Almeria, on the south coast of Spain, reports, on the 14th May, that the mole in course of construction at that port has been extended during the past year 100 yards in a direction S.  $33^{\circ}$  E. (true), having at its outer end a depth of 35 feet of water.

It appears, therefore, that this new mole, situated 634 yards to the westward of the Torre del Tiro, advances into the sea in the mean direction of S.  $18^{\circ}$  E. (true) to an extent of 593 yards.

By command of their Lordships.

John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
1st June, 1860.

This Notice will affect the following Admiralty Charts:—North Atlantic, Eastern part, No. 2060; Spain, South Coast, Sheets 1 and 2, Nos. 1186, 1187; Spain, West Coast, No. 1755; and the Mediterranean Sea, General Chart, No. 2158. Also, Spanish Lights List, No. 229, and Mediterranean Lights List, No. 32.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, June 19, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the proceeds received and tonnage bounty, awarded for the name unknown, supposed to be the Kate Helen, captured on the 15th September, 1858, by Her Majesty's ship Viper.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty awarded, for the Name Unknown, supposed to be the Rufus Soule, captured on the 11th October, 1858, by Her Majesty's ship Viper.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand [to] the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

I HENRY HAWKSLEY CAPES, Superintendent Registrar of the Great Ouseburn Union, in the county of York, do hereby give notice, that the building situate at Aldbrough, in the West Riding of the county of York, formerly known as the Independent Chapel there, is now no longer a place wherein marriages may be lawfully solemnized, the Registry for that purpose having been cancelled by the Registrar-General.

As witness my hand this 20th day of June, 1860.

H. H. Capes,

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that provisional protection has been allowed

1316. To the Reverend Henry Moule, of Fordington, in the county of Dorset, Clerk, and James Bannehr, of Exeter, Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the nature and construction of closets and commodes for the reception and removal of excrementitious and other offensive matter, and in the manufacture of manure from thence."

On their petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 28th day of May, 1860.

1370. To Thomas Reid, of Monkton Miln, in the county of Ayr, North Britain, Farmer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery, apparatus, or means for actuating or working railway brakes."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 4th day of June, 1860.

1371. To William Taylor, of Nursling, near Southampton, in the county of Hants, Gentleman, for the invention of "the improved heating of hothouses and other buildings by means of flat pipes made of any malleable material, and for manufacturing thereof."

1373. To Charles Senior, of Deadwaters, near Huddersfield, in the county of York, for the invention of "apparatus for utilising the waste heat in the flues of steam and other engines."

1375. To François Charles Richer, of the Waterloo-road, in the county of Surrey, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in breech loading fire arms and in their cartridges."

1376. To William Trenter, of 44, Clerkenwell Green, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in washing and wringing machines."

1377. To Joseph Jardin, Mechanician, and Paul Adrien Girard, Merchant, both of 29, Boulevard St. Martin, Paris, in the Empire of France, for the invention of "a new or improved machinery for manufacturing brick, tiles, and other ceramic products."

1379. To Edward Lavender and Robert Lavender, of 31, Bromley-street, Commercial-road, Stepney, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in destructive and vinous distillation."

1380. To George Bower, of St. Neots, in the county of Huntingdon, Gas Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for manufacturing, controlling, and regulating the flow of gas."

1381. To Joseph Apsey, of Cornwall-road, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, and William George Buckwell, of the Phoenix Stone Works, East Greenwich, in the county of Kent, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in steam boiler and other furnaces."

1382. To George Hadfield, of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, Varnish Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of casks or barrels, and in the machinery to be used therein."

1383. And to George and Joseph Jenkins, Brothers, of 17, Young's-buildings, Hare-court, Aldersgate-street, in the city of London, Iron Bedstead Makers, for the invention of "an improved portable arm chair."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 5th day of June, 1860.

1386. To Francis Herbert Wenham, of Brixton, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in steam engines."

1389. To Marcel Gripon Deschamps, of No. 261, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Metallurgist, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for carving and sculpturing."

1390. To Joseph Jewsbury, of Kinver, in the county of Stafford, Machinist, for the invention of "certain improvements in machinery for the manufacture of screws."

1392. To Peter Hooley and John Wood, both of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton Wadding Manufacturers, for the invention of "an improvement in the manufacture of cotton wadding and in machinery or apparatus connected therewith."

1393. And to John Saunders and Joseph Piper, of Cookley Iron Works, Kidderminster, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of tin and terne plates."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 6th day of June, 1860.

1395. To James Brown, of 2, Ribchester-terrace, Bridge-road, Stratford, in the county of Essex, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in fire bars, retorts, and other appliances connected with furnaces, &c."

Her Majesty's Stationery Office,
June 9, 1860.

THE Comptroller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office begs to intimate, that forms of tender or the supply of required for the Public Service in England for the year commencing 1st July next, may be obtained, any day, between the hours of ten and four, and samples of the paper seen, at the Stationery Office, Storey's-gate, Westminster.

Tenders to be addressed to the Comptroller of the Stationery Office, Princes-street, Storey's-gate, and to be delivered on Thursday the 21st June, 1860, before twelve o'clock, after which day and hour no tender can or will be received.

CONTRACT FOR CLOTHING, &c., FOR ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, June 5, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the ARTICLES of CLOTHS, &c., for CLOTHING and NECESSARIES and GARNITURE, &c., for making up Clothing and Necessaries for the Royal Marines, mentioned in a form of tender which may be obtained at the said Office; one half of each of the several articles to be delivered within four calendar months, and the remainder within six calendar months, from the date of contract, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Samples of the several articles may be seen at the Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of one and four o'clock.

Tenders will be received for the whole or for any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-Place.

CONTRACTS FOR SUGAR, COCOA, AND WHEAT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, June 15, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 2nd July next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

Sugar, 300 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 150 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wheat, 3,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The sugar and cocoa to be exempted from the Customs's duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Samples of the cocoa (not less than two pounds), and of the wheat (not less than two quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the samples tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

WHEREAS the said George Chapman and William Campbell Taylor did, on the 13th day of March, 1860, severally present their petitions to this Court, praying that an order might be made for the winding up of the affairs of the said Plumstead, Woolwich, and Charlton Consumers' Pure Water Company (limited), under the provisions of the said Acts, and that, for that purpose, all necessary and proper directions might be given, or that such further or other order might be made in the premises, as the nature of the case might require. Now, upon reading the said several petitions of the said George Chapman and William Campbell Taylor, and the several affidavits of the said petitioners and of Thomas Henderson, Archibald Scott Lawson, Walter Humber, William Henry Kennedy, Frank Adcock, and Charles Mossop, in support of and in opposition to such petitions, and, upon hearing what was alleged by Mr. Linklater, Solicitor for the petitioner, George Chapman, Mr. Lawrance, Solicitor for certain Directors of the said Company, Mr. Hughes, Solicitor for certain other directors of the said Company, Mr. Bagley and Mr. David, of Counsel, for the said William Campbell Taylor, and Mr. Jessel, of Counsel for Mr. Lewis Davis, a contributory, and Mr. Lewis, Mr. Flux and Mr. Hyman Davis, Solicitors for other contributories of the said Company, this Court doth order that the said Plumstead, Woolwich, and Charlton Consumers' Pure Water Company (limited), be absolutely wound up by this Court, under the provisions of the said Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856 and 1857; and it is ordered that it be referred to the Taxing Master of this Honourable Court, to tax the costs of the said George Chapman, William Campbell Taylor, and of the directors respectively, of and incidental to the said petitions respectively, and that such costs, when taxed, be paid out of the assets of the said Company.

In the Court of Bankruptcy.

In the Matter of the Australasian Land and Emigration Company (limited), and of the Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856 and 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition for the winding up of the affairs of the above-named Company, under the provisions of the said Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856 and 1857, was on Tuesday, the 19th day of June, 1860, presented to the Court of Bankruptcy for the London District, by a shareholder of the said Company; and that such petition will be heard before Mr. Commissioner Goulburn, at the Court of Bankruptcy for the London District, in Basinghall-street, London, on Wednesday, the 11th day of July, 1860, at one o'clock in the afternoon. Any person desirous to oppose the making of an Order, absolute for the winding up of the said Company under the said Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose, and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any shareholder of the said Company requiring the same, by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated this 20th day of June, 1860.
