LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY MELTON MOWBRAY, LEICESTERSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted on the 25th day of June, 1860, by the parish of Melton Mowbray, in the county of Leicester; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertised for three successive weeks in the Melton Mowbray Times, that being one of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid parish, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such parish to which notices are usually affixed; and the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act by such parish has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the said parish of Melton Mowbray, in the county of Leicester, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such parish.

Given under my hand this 26th day of July, 1860.

(Signed) G. C. Lewis.
