

July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing that the number of polling places for the western division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that the parishes, townships, or places of the Hundred House, Hartlebury, Martley, Malvern Link, and Berrow, may be declared additional polling places for the said division, within which such places are situate :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the said parishes, townships, or places of the Hundred House, Hartlebury, Martley, Malvern Link, and Berrow, shall be additional polling places for the western division of the county of Worcester ; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said western division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for regulating the number and emoluments of the vicars choral or minor canons in the cathedral church of Bangor.

" Whereas it has been represented to us by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bangor, that there are at present two vicars choral or minor canons in the said cathedral church, both of whom have been appointed since the passing of the herein-named Act, and that the said vicars choral or minor canons are each endowed with, or entitled to receive a portion of, the proceeds of certain tithe rent-charges arising within the parish of Llandinam, in the county of Montgomery, and producing an average yearly income of sixty-five pounds.

" And whereas it has been proposed to us by the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the number of vicars choral or minor canons in the said cathedral church should be fixed at two.

" And whereas the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church are not possessed of any corporate revenues.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bangor, testified by their having hereunto affixed their chapter seal, we humbly recommend and propose that the number of vicars choral or minor canons in the said cathedral church of Bangor shall from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be two.

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund, specified in the herein-mentioned Act, to each of such vicars choral or minor canons, in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, the annual sum of eighty-five pounds.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or either of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.
