

letter so to be received by any such seaman, serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier, shall be sent from parts beyond the seas without the postage of one penny being prepaid thereon, every such letter must be charged to the party receiving the same with a rate of twopence. And whenever any such letter so to be received by any such seaman, serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier, shall be conveyed by private ships, the gratuities payable by law to the masters of such vessels in respect of such letters must in all cases be paid to the Post Office in addition to the postage.

3. In all cases in which a letter sent by the post on their own private concerns, addressed to any commissioned officer in the army or the navy, respectively, whilst actually employed in Her Majesty's service in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or on any foreign station, and before the delivery of such letter at the place of its address, the officer to whom it shall be addressed shall, in the execution of his duty, have removed from that place to any other place (whether at home or abroad) (except as in the next clause of this Warrant is mentioned), every such letter shall be re-directed to such officer at such other place, and shall be forwarded to the latter place, and any postage, British or Colonial, chargeable by law on or in respect of such re-direction, shall be and the same is hereby remitted, and such officer shall not be charged with more than the postage which would have been payable for such re-directed letter in case the same had been delivered at the place to which it was originally addressed.

4. Provided that the last preceding clause shall not apply to any letter sent by the post from any one place in the United Kingdom addressed to any commissioned officer at any other place in the United Kingdom, and who before the delivery thereof at the place of its address shall, in the execution of his duty, have removed from that place to any place beyond the seas, which last-mentioned letter shall be chargeable with the same rates of postage to which it would be liable anything in the said last-preceding clause contained notwithstanding.

5. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six, for the regulation of the duties of postage.

6. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders or directions hereby made, and may make and establish other orders or directions in lieu thereof.

7. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of November next.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the twenty-second day of October, 1860.
