

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 19. to Monday May 23. 1687.

Whitehall, May 21.

THE following Addresses have been Presented to His Majesty, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of some of Your Majesties Nonconforming and Loyal Subjects of Your Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, on the Behalf of our Selves and Others.

May it please Your Majesty,

Your Royal Grace and Favor manifested in Your Free Pardon, Published in the Second Year of Your Majesties Reign, was of such Advantage and Benefit to us, that some of us Imprisoned by Writs of Capias for Nonconformity were discharged, and others of us delivered from eminent Ruine, being then under severe Persecution upon the same Account: The Sense of this Favor (which we with all Thankfulness acknowledge) was not gone out of our minds, when it pleased Your Majesty, by Your late most Gracious Declaration, to espouse that Principle, That Conscience ought not to be Constrained, nor People forc'd in matters of meer Religion, a Principle so Universally true and just, that those whose Interest it was to deny, that the matters in Controversie betwixt them and us ought to be concerned in it, or that we were to be believed in our Professions of Conscience. ~~These things would be of their own~~ ~~at a national~~ Plea, if the Case should be their own. Your Majesties Gracious Inclination, Your Sense and Opinion herein thus declared, filleth us with unspeakable Satisfaction and Joy; And as we cannot but be sensible of the present Advantage we have by it, being from thence Indulg'd in a Freedom to serve God in our way and manner, so are we confident that when others shall consider that this Truth hath now gained Caesar's Image and Supercription, it will henceforth pass for current good Coin, and conduct much to allay the Heats and Animosities which must unavoidably make the Government unquiet, if a peaceably dispos'd Prince.

An ow (Great Sir) as we render our humble Thanks to under whose Conduct and Guidance the Hearts of King and People for their Liberty, so we desire to express all possible Gratitude to Your Majesty for Your Royal Favor and Compassion, promising in all Humility, to continue in hearty and dutiful Obedience under Your Government, and to be firmly resolv'd to abide to move in all the Paths of Loyalty and Allegiance to serve Your Majesty at our utmost Hazard.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of divers of Your Majesties Subjects of Stafford, Derby, and Nottingham commonly called Anabaptists.

6 c,

WE your Majesty's Humble and Loyal Subjects, being several Years past been deep Sufferers by the Execution of Penal Laws about matters of Religion, have received the great Benefit of Your Majesties most Gracious Declaration for Liberty of Conscience, by which we are at once delivered from all the Distresses we have undergone, and have also the invaluable Blessing of Liberty to serve the Almighty God according to the best Light of our own Consciences.

His Majesty made our thankful Acknowledgments to the God of Heaven, as owing Him to be the Original of this and all our Blessings in the next place.

Dread Sovereign, The Force of this Your great Clemency bring us at this time to Your Majesties Feet, to present You our most humble and unfeigned Thanks for that Liberty and Quiet that we, and all other Dissenters now enjoy, and rest confident of, during Your Majesties whole Reign; And so assure Your Majesty of our Duty and Loyalty to the utmost, and that it shall ever be our Care to promote what in us lies the Glory and Happiness of Your Majesties Person and Government, and the Peace and Quiet of all our Fellow Subjects.

And that from this Illustrious Instance, so great, so good, and so just, founded upon such unalterable Principles, such an universal Blessing from Almighty God may descend upon Your Majesty, Your Royal Posterity, and all the People under Your Government, that You may be Great throughout all the World.

And that from these good Effects following upon this Princely Action, Your Majesty may ever be confirm'd in the Wisdom and Goodness of this Choice.

We shall ever pray

Subscribed for our Selves, and in the Behalf of many others of the same Persuasion with us.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of many of Your Majesties Subjects in and about Namptwich in Cheshire, Salop in Shropshire, and Audley in Staffordshire, commonly called Anabaptists.

Most Serene Prince,

When we call to mind the Distresses we lately groan'd under, and the inevitable Ruine that threaten'd us, and our Families, by reason of the severe Execution of the Penal Laws about matters of Religion, and now finding our Selves delivered at once from all our Sufferings and fears, by Your Gracious Declaration for Liberty of Conscience, we can do no less than prostrate our Selves at Your Majesties Feet, with the Offer of our most humble Thanks, flowing from the deepest Sense of Your Princely Compassion towards us.

And though we want Words to express our Gratitude for so great a Blessing as the free Exercise of our Religion, which is now by Your Majesty granted unto us, and all others; in so full a manner, as could be expected from none, but such a Prince as Heaven designed for the highest Pattern of Royal Goodness and true Policy; Yet the Sense of it hath made so lasting an Impression upon us, that (we trust) it shall not be possible for any of Your Subjects to serve Your Majesty with more ready Obedience, and steadfast Loyalty, than we shall do in our Station, to the utmost of our Capacity.

Dread Sovereign, That Almighty God, who hath established You upon the Throne to correct the Mistakes of past Ages, and make the present happy in the enjoyment of an entire Liberty of Conscience (which in matters of Religion cannot be forced) will Crown Your Majesty and Your Royal Posterity with all Temporal and Eternal Blessings, making Your Reign over us Glorious and happy, to the utmost Wish of Your most Loyal and Obliged Subjects, and the Terror of Your Enemies.

We shall ever pray

Subscribed for our Selves, and in the Behalf of many others of the same Persuasion with us.

Cadix, April 18. The Saphire and Swan Frigats, Commanded by Capt. Tofter and Captain Fredericke Fromde, are come in here with a Sally Prize, called the Lemon-Tree, of 26 Guns, and 140 Men, which they took the 6th Instant on the Coast of Sally; she came over the Bar the 4th in the Afternoon, and had not got on board all her Stores and Provisions when she was taken; after which the Saphire leaving the Swan with the Prize, stood with another Sail they saw to Windward, which proved to be the Garland, and then standing in to the Shore, Capt. Tofter ordered the Garland's Boat and his own to go a head of them, and to fetch off a Betch that lay