

cerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications:

OADBY, LEICESTERSHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the Parish Church, and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the Parish Churchyard.

CHROMER.—Forthwith in all earthen family graves in the Parish Churchyard.

PEMBROKE.—From and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in St. Daniel's Cemetery, except in graves and vaults which are free from water, and except in so far as they can be conducted in accordance with the Official Regulations for New Burial Grounds.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the third day of January next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said third day of January.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Board of Health for the district of Rugby, in the county of Warwick, established under "The Public Health Act, 1848," have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the said district of Rugby is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for the said district, under any of the Burial Acts now in force, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing the burial-ground within the said district, as mentioned in such Order, and praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to order that the said Local Board of Health shall be the Burial Board for the district of Rugby aforesaid.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the third day of January next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board of Health of Rugby aforesaid, one month at least before the said third day of January next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23th day of November, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Town Council of any borough, stating that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds of one or more parishes, being wholly or partly within such borough, that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing, under the powers of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such parish or parishes, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that powers shall be vested in the Council of such borough for providing such places of burial, under the provisions of the said Act; provided always that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before such petition is so considered.

And whereas the Town Council of the borough of Gateshead, in the county of Durham, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that two Orders in Council have been issued for closing (with the exceptions or modifications therein mentioned) certain burial grounds within the parish of Gateshead; that the said parish is wholly situate within the said borough of Gateshead; and that the several burial grounds mentioned in the said two Orders in Council are all situate within the said borough, and within the said parish, and representing that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Gateshead, under the provisions of the above recited Act, passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council of the borough of Gateshead for providing places of burial, under the provisions of the various Acts of Parliament relating to burials, for the inhabitants of the said parish of Gateshead:

And whereas notice of such Petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order that the same be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council has been duly published as required by the said first-recited Act:

And whereas by the ninth section of the above-recited Act, passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, it is enacted that where, previously to the making of any Order in Council, under the said Act, it shall be made
