

seventh March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty), from the first of January to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the churchyard of PITTINGTON, Durham, from the first of January to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the new part of the churchyard of Saint Helen's, ABINGDON, and in the other parts of that churchyard, provided, no human remains be exposed; and in the Baptist Burial-ground, Saint Helen's, ABINGDON, from the first of January to the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In Christ Church Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, in MANCHESTER, from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, on condition that all the regulations prescribed by certain Orders in Council of the seventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and twenty-second of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in reference to this burial-ground, be strictly observed.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the thirty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, burials were directed to be discontinued, with certain exceptions, from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the churchyard of ILLINGWORTH, in the parish of Halifax, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be forthwith discontinued in ILLINGWORTH Churchyard within three yards of all dwelling-houses, and also in the old part of the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and walled graves; and, from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the whole of the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and walled graves, which shall be used in accordance with the regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

Statute above referred to.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed, in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intitled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute for the future regulation of the Craven Scholarships in the University of Cambridge, the Battie Scholarship, the Davies' Scholarship, and the Pitt Scholarship, in the same University in common.

1. The University shall have power to alter and determine, from time to time, by grace of the Senate, the regulations respecting the persons who are to examine the Candidates and elect the Scholars; and also the regulations respecting notice of the vacancy of any Scholarship, the academical standing of Candidates, the notice to be given by Candidates of their intention to present themselves for examination, the time, mode, and subjects of examination, and the time of election.

2. In the election to any Scholarship the electors shall not be required to take into consideration the pecuniary circumstances of the candidates.

3. In the election to any Scholarship the electors shall not be required to take into consideration the relation of the Candidates to the Founder in name or kindred.

4. Each Scholarship shall be tenable for seven years, if the Scholar shall continue a Member of the University, but no longer.

5. No student shall hold more than one of the Scholarships governed by this Statute at the same time.

6. The University shall have power to regulate, from time to time, by grace of the Senate, the conditions of residence of the Scholars; and if any Scholar fail to comply with such conditions, the electors shall be at liberty to declare his Scholarship vacant.

7. The University shall have power, by grace of the Senate, to augment, out of any funds at their disposal, the stipends of the Davies and Battie Scholarships, respectively.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.
