STATUTE RESPECTING MR. WORTS'S ENDOWMENT FOR TRAVELLING BACHELORS.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute respecting the Endowment of Mr. William Worts for Bachelors of Arts.

The annual pensions charged by Mr. Worts upon his estate of £100 a year each to two young Bachelors of Arts, to be sent into Foreign Countries and to continue there for the space of three years, shall cease to be so applied, and shall constitute a fund, from which the University may make grants from time to time, by grace of the Senate, at its discretion, for the promotion or encouragement of investigations in Foreign Countries respecting the religion, learning, laws, politics, customs, manners, and rarities, natural or artificial, of those countries, or for purposes of geographical discovery or of antiquarian or scientific research in Foreign Countries; the conditions as to publishing the result of such investigations to be determined in every case when any grant is made.

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

STATUTES FOR CERTAIN PROFESSORSHIPS.

IN THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

WE, the Commissioners appointed by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statutes for the future regulation of Sir Thomas Adams's Professorship of Arabic, the Knightbridge Professorship of Moral Theology, Casuistical Divinity, and Moral Philosophy, the Regius Professorship of Modern History, the Woodwardian Professorship of Geology, the Jacksonian Professorship of Natural Philosophy, the Regius Professorships of Civil Law and of Physic, and the Professorships of Chemistry, Anatomy, Botany, and Mineralogy in the said University.

I.

STATUTE FOR SIR THOMAS ADAMS'S PROFESSORSHIP OF ARABIC.

The following provisions, contained in the Royal Letters Patent, July 4, 18 Car. 2, are hereby repealed, viz:—

1. That which requires the Professor to lecture once in every week during term time through the year.

2. That which prescribes the times when the Professor is to be prepared to give assistance to students in private.

3. Those which give power to the Vice-Chancellor to admonish the Professor for neglect of duty, and to the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of Colleges to deprive him of his Professorship for neglect of duty or misconduct.

4. That which gives a preference in the election of the Professor to Heads and Fellows of Colleges and Gremials.

5. Those which prescribe the time of election of the Professor after every vacancy and the time and mode of publication of the notice of the vacancy and election.

6. Those which require the Electors to take an oath before the election, and the Professor elect to take an oath previous to admission.

7. Those which give power to the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of Colleges to deprive the Professor of his office in case of incompetency, and assign the stipend to be paid to him after deprivation.

8. That which prevents Sir Thomas Adams's Professor from holding any other Professorship, so far as to enable him to hold with his Professorship the Lord Almoner's Readership in Arabic, if duly appointed thereto.

The remaining provisions of the said Letters Patent, as far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Statute, are hereby re-enacted; and the following additional provisions are hereby enacted, viz:—

1. The Statute for Sir Thomas Adams's Professorship of Arabic and certain other Professorships, in common, shall be deemed to be a part of this Statute.

2. The University shall have power to determine from time to time, by Grace of the Senate, the time for which the Professor is required to reside in the University in every year, such time not to exceed eighteen weeks.

3. This Statute shall come into force on the next vacancy of the Professorship, or at such earlier time as the Professor may declare in writing to the Vice-Chancellor his acceptance of the same.
