

the Imperial Commissaries will be ready to receive and conduct them at the Emperor's charge to the general Rendezvous. The Troops of Suabia are expected here towards the end of this month.

Brussels, June 6. The Prince and Princesses of Vandemont are returned hither from Aix la Chapelle. Don Emanuel Colonna, Envoy Extraordinary from the Crown of Spain to the States-General of the United Provinces, arrived here this week in his way to Holland. The Cavalry and Dragoons which were encamped in Gelderland, are returned to their respective Garrisons. They write from Treves of the first Instant, that the French were forming a Camp at Traerback, of 8000 Foot and 4000 Horse, and that the new Fort they are building on the Mont de Crois near that place, will have 7 Bastions, and that they have given it the name of Mont-Royal. The Letters from Vienna of the 25th past tell us, that the Duke of Lorraine parted from thence the day before for Luxemburgh, and having taken his leave of the Emperor, continued his Journey the next Morning for Hungary; That in the mean time the Imperial Troops were marching from all sides to the general Rendezvous, but that 'twould be the beginning of the next month before they all arrived there. That the Emperor had given the Government of Waradin in Croatia, to Lieutenant-General Caprara; And that of Sirria, to the Count de Staremberg, and that Count Rabata was declared Marechal de Camp General. These Advices add, that the Princess Ragotzi, Count Tockley's Wife, had written to Cardinal Borovisi, to pray him to intercede with the Emperor on her behalf, that she may have leave to send Deputies to Vienna, to treat about the Surrender of Mongatz. They write from Szegedin, that the Turks had finished their Bridge over the Danube at Peter-Waradin, and that they had built a Fort to cover it, in which the Grand Visier had posted 500 Janizaries.

Figure, June 10. Yesterday arrived here the Duke of Berwick, who having been to wait upon her Royal Highness, and the Prince of Orange, at Honflaer Lake, parted from hence this Evening in the Princes Yacht for Vtrecht. The Count de Roye arrived here the 8th Instant, and intends to embark in two or three days for England.

Paris, June 7. The King returned this Evening to Versailles; His Majesty during his stay at Luxemburgh, viewed all the new Works that have been added to the ancient Fortifications of that City, which take in all the space that was between the Body of the Place, the Paffendall and the Grondy, with several Redoubts to defend the Outworks: And gave his Orders to the Sieur de Vauban, his Principal Ingenier, about the new Fort that's designed to be built near Traerback; In which several Battalions will be employed, who are accordingly marching thither. There are fitting out at Brest, four Men of War with three Gallies, and some other Vessels to attend them. This Squadron will be Commanded by the Chevalier de Tourville, and is to join the Duke of Mortemear off of Cadix, who, if his Indisposition continues (he being ill of an Ague) is to return to Toulon. We have an Account from Rome, that the Pope has published a Bull for the suppressing the Franchises of the Ambassadors Quarters.

The Western Circuit is appointed as following.
