

No person shall be entitled to present himself as a candidate for such Exhibition who has not been educated at St. Paul's School for the space of three years at least.

The Candidates for such Exhibition shall be examined in such manner as the Master and Fellows of Corpus Christi College shall from time to time direct, in order to ascertain their fitness to become Students of the College.

In default of any duly qualified candidate from St. Paul's School, the Exhibition then vacant shall be treated as open to general competition.

The Exhibitioner shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, and discipline as the Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of or suspended from his Exhibition by the Master and Fellows for any misconduct which shall, in their judgment, merit such deprivation or suspension.

The Exhibition shall be tenable until the person holding it shall be of standing to take the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or, if the Master and Fellows of Corpus Christi College think fit, until he is of standing to take the degree of Master of Arts, but no longer.

Given under our Common Seal this first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

We, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute for the future government and regulation of the College of Corpus Christi and of the Blessed Mary, in the University of Cambridge:—

De suscipiendis Sacris Ordinibus.

Statuimus etiam quod octo ex Sociis Collegii prædicti teneantur ad sacros ordines suscipiendos intra tres annos post admissionem suam, sub pœna amissionis sodalitiæ; et, quamdiu sodalitiæ tenebit, quisque qui ad sacros ordines suscipiendos teneatur, Sacræ Theologiæ studio et aliis optimis studiis diligenter incumbat. Reliqui autem Socii non teneantur ullo tempore ad sacros ordines suscipiendos: quorum tamen si quis post annum ab admissione sua tertium finitum sacros ordines in se susceperit, is collationis ad beneficium ejus patronatus ad Collegium pertineat sibi vindicandæ jus nullum habeat.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good Government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute for the conversion of the Scholarship founded by Mr. Miller, at St Peter's College, in the University of Cambridge, into an Exhibition at the same College.

The Scholarship founded by Mr. Thomas Miller, of Brampton, in the county of Huntingdon, shall, on the occurrence of the next vacancy thereof, be converted into an Exhibition at the same College, to be called "the Miller Exhibition," and the emoluments of the said Scholarship shall thenceforth be transferred and belong to the said Exhibition.

The Master and Fellows of St. Peter's College, shall, on occasion of each and every vacancy, elect to such Exhibition some person who has been educated at the Free Grammar School at Huntingdon, if any such person offer himself for election, who, in the judgment of the Master and Fellows, shall be duly qualified. But if no such person offer himself for election, then the Master and Fellows shall be at liberty to elect to the Exhibition, for that turn, any person whatsoever whom they shall deem to be duly qualified.

The Exhibition shall be subject to such rules and regulations as to the continuance and enjoyment thereof, as the Master and Fellows of St. Peter's College shall from time to time direct.

Given under our Common Seal this fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.
