WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following additional Statute for the future regulation of Gonville and Caius College, in the University of Cambridge.

Repeal of previously existing Statutes.

From and after the approbation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council none of the Statutes of Gonville and Caius College, in the University of Cambridge, which existed and were in force before the passing of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," shall be of any force and effect, save and except in so far as the said former Statutes relate to the emoluments, tenure of office, right of pre-option of livings, and other interests of a pecuniary nature of the present Master, and of the Fellows of the College elected before the date of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the 30th day of June, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty.

And save and except so much of the said former Statutes as relate to the powers and functions of the Visitor thereof, which shall be and remain in force as heretofore.

From and after the approbation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, all the former Statutes of the College shall stand and be repealed, except and subject as aforesaid.

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-third day of October, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty.
