

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 9. to Monday June 13. 1687.

Windsor, June 11.

THE following Addresses have been Presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously. The Persons which Presented that from the Borough of Richmond, within the Diocess of Chester, were introduced by the Lord Bishop of Chester.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of several Benchers and Baristers of the Middle Temple.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful Subjects, To our great joy, have received a happy occasion of making this Declaration of our Gratitude, And as we know that Your Majesties Goodness is the greatest that ever was shown by a Prince to His Subjects; so we wish the voice of Men and Angels, to return sufficient Thanks for Your Majesties consideration and clemency to all Your Subjects, in Your Gracious Declaration for a Toleration.

And as for this Compassion and Goodness, Thank ought to be paid Your Majesty by all Your Subjects. So we, especially of the Profession of the Law, have most reason to be thankful for the Honour You have done us, by asserting Your own Royal Prerogatives, which is the very life of the Law, and our Profession.

Which Prerogatives as they were given by God himself, so we Declare, that no Power upon Earth, can diminish them, but they must always remain entire, and inseparable to Your Royal Person. Which Prerogatives, as we have studied to know them, so we are resolved to defend them, by asserting with our Lives and Fortunes, that Divine Maxime? A Deo Rex, A Rege Lex.

And now as a testimony of our perfect satisfaction in this our Address, and acknowledgment, we have Subscribed our Names, that Your Majesty may know us to be Yours; and that the rest of our Profession may follow our example: And therefore we humbly beg Your Majesty will accept this Address from us, who in conclusion make bold to offer our best wishes, and hearty desires, that Your Majesties Councils may prosper in Wisdom, Your Kingdom flourish in Peace, and Your Royal Person enjoy a Long, Happy, and Glorious Reign over us.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and divers other Inhabitants of Your Majesties Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Your Borough of Richmond in Yorkshyre.

YOUR Majesties most Obedient Subjects cannot pass over any occasion of acknowledging the infinite Mercy and Providence of Almighty God, in establishing Your Majesty upon the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors; And in making Your People Happy under the Care and Conduct of so Wise, and so Gracious a Sovereign. We are (May it please Your Majesty) infinitely sensible of the Blessings of our Deliverance from a Republican Tyranny of near Twenty years continuance, where the Church of England, as the Pillar of this Imperial Monarchy, was still the burden, and the mark of all their Envy and Malice: And we are no less sensible of the Freedom, the Safety, and the Plenty that we enjoy, by the Blessing of God upon Your Majesties Arms, and Administration, both at home and abroad. And in particular, we do with most Thankful Hearts, acknowledge Your Majesties Princely Generosity and Goodness in the singular Care taken for the Comforting, and Supporting of our Loyal Hearts in Your late Declaration of Assurance to Protect and Maintain the Church of England, as by Law established, in the freedom of our Religions, and in the enjoyment of our Possessions: not reflecting at all upon this Your Majesties most Pious and Christian Condescension, as any way necessary for the strengthening of our Trust and Confidence in Your Gracious Declarations formerly past; but bowing our Seves with all Reverence, at the Equivocal repetition of your inviolable Clemency and Justice, which we shall ever celebrate with the oblation of our Vows, for a long and happy Reign to Your Majesty; And of our Lives and Fortunes, at Your Majesties Feet. Dated this 3d day of June, One thousand six hundred eighty seven.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Great SIR,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of Your Ancient and Loyal City of Chester, in Common-Council Assembled, reflecting upon the happy Peace and Quiet we enjoy by Your Majesties Gracious Reign over us; do on behalf of our selves, and fellow-Citizens in all Humility, most devoutly acknowledge the frequent Promises Your Majesty hath made, of protecting all Your Subjects of the Church of England (whose Members have showed themselves so eminently Loyal in the worst of times, as Your Majesty hath been pleased to observe) in their Religion, and in all their Rights and Possessions, as they stand by Law established. Which, that Your Majesty may live long to continue to them, is, and will be our constant Prayers; who will be ready at all times, to manifest our most Humble and unfeigned Duty and Allegiance to your Majesty.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed the common Seal of this City, the 7th day of June, in the 3d year of Your Majesties Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, chiefly of the Congregation at Persuasioti dwelling in Ipswich, Burgh. Edmunds, and divers other parts of the County of Suffolk.

Dread Sovereign,

YOUR Lige People, the Dissenters, and Friends, who shall most gratefully express a Thankful Heart; We among many thousands having heard Burdens, taken off by repeated Acts of Your Princes by Grace, are at Your Feet with our Thank-Offering, to which Your own Goodness must give words, to render it of a sweet Savour.

The Shields of the Earth belong unto God, he hath made out a Tower and Cherub to us, under whose refreshing Shadow we promise our selves Rest. It is Your Majesty who hath loosed our Prison Bonds, let the Oppressed go free, and broken every yoke, and thereby excited a Zeal in the Hearts and Affections of Your Subjects, above Your Majesties. By those steps, Great SIR, Your Throne will be advanced in Glory, as it is still filled with Mercy; And under these blessed Influences of Your Majesties Reign, we shall endeavour by a department becoming good Christians, and dutiful Subjects, to let all men see that the free