Arthur Helps.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby make, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, the following Statute for the regulation of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton.

Whereas we, the said Commissioners, have made an additional Statute for the future government of King's College in the University of Cambridge, and for better regulating the mode in which the changes in the constitution of that College, prescribed by the Statutes already made by us, the said Commissioners, shall be carried into effect, which Statute is in the words following, that is to say:—

1. As soon as the new Statutes for King's College come into force it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows at once to declare the then existing Scholars, "Eton Scholars," in the sense of that term employed in the new Code of Statutes.

2. In case any vacancies shall occur in the number of Fellows and Scholars of King's College after the day on which the new Statutes shall come into force, and before the indentures for the current year are cancelled at Eton College, it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows of King's College to admit to Scholarships at that College such Scholars of Eton College as shall have a contingent title to admission at King's College, and to declare such Scholars, on their admission, "Eton Scholars," in the sense of the term employed in the new Code of Statutes.

3. Whereas the present number of Fellows of King's College is fifty-five, while the new Statutes contemplate the number being reduced to forty-six, it shall not be necessary for the Provost and Fellows to abstain from filling up all Fellowships which may become vacant until the entire number be reduced below forty-six; but it shall be lawful for them to fill up such limited number of vacant Fellowships in each successive year as they may think fit, until the entire number of Fellows be reduced below forty-six.

4. Whereas it is contemplated in the new Statutes for King's College that the number of "Eton Scholars" at that College shall be twenty-four, it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows to complete that number gradually, provided that not fewer than three Eton Scholarships shall be offered for competition in each year, until the statutable number of twenty-four be completed.

Now we, the Commissioners aforesaid, by virtue of the powers vested in us by the aforesaid Act (19 & 20 Vict. c. 88), do ordain that the said Statute herein-above recited shall, so far as the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton may be affected thereby, be deemed to be a Statute of such last-mentioned College, and shall have the same force and effect as the other Statutes of the same College, subject, nevertheless, to the following provision; that is to say, that the said College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton shall not be in any manner bound or affected by the said recited Statute, if the same do not become and be a Statute of King's College in the University of Cambridge.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, April 16, 1861.
