

in the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish herein-after mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the vaults belonging to the parish of SAINT BOTOLPH BY BILLINGSGATE, situated beneath the houses Nos. 9 and 10, Lower Thames-street; and that the coffins contained therein be covered with earth and powdered charcoal, and the entrance to the same closed with brickwork properly cemented.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the sixteenth of April last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-seventh of May last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be forthwith discontinued in the vaults belonging to the parish of SAINT BOTOLPH BY BILLINGSGATE, situated beneath the houses Nos. 9 and 10, Lower Thames-street; and that the coffins contained therein be covered with earth and powdered charcoal, and that the entrance to the vaults be closed with brickwork properly cemented.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of June, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications; viz.:

BRADFORD, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith in the parish churchyard, and in the Salem, Eastbrook, Horton-lane Chapelyards, in Great Horton Episcopal and Primitive Methodist Chapelyards, except in now existing family vaults and graves which are free from water, can be opened without disturbance of human remains, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and entombed in an airtight manner.

DURHAM.—In the churchyard of St. Giles, on and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of remains.

LLANELLY.—In the Baptist Burial-ground of Felin Foel, on the first of October next, except in such now existing family graves as can be opened not less than five feet deep, without digging up bones or exposing coffins.

ELM, ISLE OF ELY.—Forthwith in the parish church, and, from and after the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the churchyard of the same.

RISCA, MONMOUTHSHIRE.—In the churchyard of Risca, in the county of Monmouth, on and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, except for the burial of widowers, widows, parents, and unmarried children of those already buried therein; no graves to be used which are not free from water and remains to the depth of five feet at the least.

That the churchyard of the parish of TATTENHALL, CHESHIRE, should be drained so as to prevent water from accumulating in any grave or vault, and that the official regulations for new burial grounds, omitting the third, should be observed therein.

And that the Cemetery, BRIDGEWATER, should be so drained that water shall not accumulate in any vault or grave.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixth day of August next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations, one month before the said sixth day of August.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of June, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the borough of BEAUMARIS, in the county of Anglesey, have, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that an Order in Council has been issued directing burials to be
