MEMORANDUM.

Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to accept the resignation of the Commission held by Captain Mackinnon.

By the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the 54th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 159, intituled, "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers in the United Kingdom, and of his Majesty's docks, dockyards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores, therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," it is enacted (among other things) that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of any port, harbour, or haven of this Kingdom, from which the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the time being shall find it necessary for the protection of such port, harbour, or haven, or the works thereof, by order under their hands, or the hand of their Secretary, and published in the London Gazette, shall prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast, upon pain of forfeiting, for every such offence, the sum of ten pounds.

And whereas we, as Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, have found it necessary, for the protection of the harbour and port of Pagham, in the county of Sussex, to prohibit the taking or removing of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, between the entrance to the said harbour, and half a-mile east of the White Mill; and we do hereby order that no person or persons shall take or remove any ballast or shingle from such shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, aforesaid.

Given under our hands this 5th day of August, 1861.

*Charles Frederick.
Sam. Whitbread,*

Two of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners, for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Town Hall, Westbury, on Thursday, the 29th day of August, 1861, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of Trowbridge aforesaid.
