Windsor, June 25.

THE following Addressees have been Presented to the King; which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, several of the Aldermen, Common-Council-men, Gentlemen, and Burgesses, whose Names are Subscribed hereto, in behalf of themselves, and several hundreds of the Freemen of Your Majesties ancient City of Gloucester.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, considering Your passage to the Royal Throne, has been through many unparalleled difficulties, both by Sea and Land; we cannot but conclude the Almighty has preserved You for his own Honour and Glory, and to us the best of Kings, and the best of Governments.

And being convinc'd (of what Your Majesty observes) that since it hath not been in the power of Humane policies to reunite us in one Judgment in matters of Religion, your Majesty hath taken the wisest and most Christian expedient to supply that, by publishing Your Declaration for Liberty of Conscience; whereby you have put an end to the Groans and Lamentations of many thousands of our innocent and industrious fellow Subjects, (strengthened the Foundations of your Monarchy, and given new Life and Vigor to your People and Trade: And this, Great SIR, next to God's Providence, we own proceeds from your Royal Wisdom and Goodness, in assuming that undoubted and necessary Power of dispensing with Penal Statutes about Religion, which we assert to be an inherent Prerogative of Your Imperial Crown.

At present (Dear Sovereign) the most effectual evidence we can give of our Thankfulness for this Blessing, is to acknowledge our great joy and satisfaction to see all your People quiet at their Devotions and Comfortable in their several Trades and Employments; And we do assure you, whenever there shall be occasion to elect Members of Parliament for this your City, we will endeavour to send you such as shall not only confirm their Votes, the whole scope of your Royal Declaration; but comply with whatever else may tend to the Honour of God, the Peace and Safety of Your Royal Person and Government, and the Prosperity of your People.

And we shall always Pray for Your Majesties long Lite and happy Reign over us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Common-Council, Justices of the Peace, and other Freemen of the Corporation of Berwick upon Tweed.

Dread SOVERAIGN,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects of the Church of England, being deeply sensible of the Royal Grace and Goodness in your late Princely Declaration, wherein your Majesty hath been pleased to vouchsafe us so full an assurance of Favour and Protection in the free enjoyment of our Religion, and all our legal Properties and Possession, do most humbly lay our Acknowledgments, with the Dutiful tender of our Lives and Fortunes at your Majesties Feet; beseeching the King of Kings to give you victory over all your Enemies, and to preserve you many and many years in Health, Peace and Honour: Which is no more than what we are bound to do, upon the Principles of our Church, as well as from the Tyts of the Civil Allegiance of Your Majesties most Loyal and Thankful Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Thanks of several Dissenting Ministers of the Gospel, Inhabitants in the Western part of the County of Somerset.

Great SIR,

IT having pleased your most Excellent Majesty in your Princely Wisdom, and in a tender Consideration of the deplorable condition of your Majesties Dissenting Subjects, who groaned under the Penal Laws; to emit your most Gracious Declaration for Liberty of Conscience, whereby you manifest how much it lies upon your Royal Heart to establish the Quiet, Ease, Peace, and Welfare of all your Subjects. We your Majesties most Loyal; and most Dutiful subjects, sharers in this great Favour, do, as well in the Names of our respective Congregations, as in our own, after most Humble acknowledgments to Almighty God, in all Humility Present your Majesty our most unfeigned and hearty Thanks for the Liberty we enjoy by that Sovereign Act of Grace; professing it shall be the Care and Employment of our whole Lives, as it is our Duty, to answer the great Obligations laid upon us thereby; and to meet your Majesties transcendent Goodness, in all the methods of a perfect Gratitude, and Cheerful Obedience. That this Foundation of Settlement, which your Majesty hath so wisely laid, may be built upon, to the Glory of God, and the Happiness of all your Subjects; That your Majesty may be Blessed with the choicest Blessings, both of Heaven and Earth; That your Reign may be long and prosperous; your Crown flourish, and the Glory of it had in remembrance to all Generations, shall ever be the Prayers and endeavour of

Great SIR,

Your Majesties most Humble, Faithful, and Obedient Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of divers of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects of several Persuasions, in the Corporation of Leeds, and Places adjacent in Your County of York.

Great SIR,

WITH all becoming Resentment we humbly Present our grateful Acknowledgments to Heaven and your sacred Majesty, for Your Royal Benignity in the ample Indulgence and Indemnity vouchsafed us, by Your most Gracious Declaration: A Noble Testimony of Your Majesties deference to Almighty God, in asserting his immediate Dominion over Conscience, as a thing no Force can or ought to violate; and also of the tender Respect Your Majesty bears to the Felicity of Your Subjects, by confirming them in the possession of their Liberties and Properties, during Your Government. Which Mercy and Righteousness, that meet and kill each other in your Majesty, We doubt not, will be the stability of Your Throne and Times.

We adore that wise Providence, which in this hath made your Majesty such a generous leading Pattern to the Princes of other People, and evidenced you a Father to your own; thereby establishing your Majesty in your Sovereignty, not only over our Bodies, but Hearts, thus doubly won upon, to entertain your Majesty into their most affectionate Embraces. And from our very Souls we implore the Divine Goodness, to return a thousand fold into your Majesties Bosom, for the Honour put upon us, in taking our Persons and Rights into your favourable Protection, and making an Billamite of our Loyalty from our Fidelity to God and our own Conscience.

May your Majesty be Bless'd with a Long, Peaceable, and Prosperous Reign, under the Conduct of Celestiall Wisdom and Grace, to an happy immortality.

Subscribed by us in the Name of many others.

Venice, June 14. The Moscovise Ambassador, who lately arrived at the Lido, has been conducted from thence

Access to the Palace provided for him in this City, and will have his Audience of the Senate on Monday next. The remainder of the Troops of Hannover amounting to 2500 Men are arrived here, and will part within few days for the Mercia with 200 Horse, which have been here since Monday last; with whom also goes the General d'Anla, and the Count St. Felice, and we are in daily expectation of the Regiment raised by the Landgrave of Hesse. The Pope's and Maltese Gallies arriving at Conflu, they met there with Orders from General Monfimi to continue their Voyage to Climino, which is the place appointed for the general Rendezvous of the Auxiliary Forces. They write from the Mercia, that the Serasquier was very intent upon the fortifying of Patrasso; and that a Party of 400 Foot of the Garrison of Navarin meeting with another of the Enemies of a far greater number, they had attacked them with so much resolution, that they returned Victorious, bringing back with them several prisoners, 130 Heads of those that were slain, and good store of Cattle. We have advice from Dalmatia, that there were about 5000 Turks moving to and again towards Opuscb (which had been lately supply'd with all things necessary by the Proveditore General Cornaro) and that they expected the coming up of other Troops to make in all 13000 Men.

Buda, June 10. The Duke of Lorraine arrived here the 4th Instant, and was received with three Discharges of the Artillery of this Place; The next day he assisted at a Solemn Procession, together with the General Officers, both of the Army and Garrison; After which, he was to visit the Old and New Fortifications, as well without as within the Town, which he found well advanc'd, and in a good condition. On the 6th, his Highness went to Old Buda, where were arrived 24 Regiments of Horse and Foot; And the same day the Bridge between Buda and Pest was finish'd. On the 7th the Army decamp'd and march'd towards the River Sarowitz, where they arrived the 8th. And the next day his Highness continued his March with 12000 Horse directly towards Essack, leaving Orders for the Foot and the rest of the Horse to follow him. In the mean time we hear that the Turks are very busy in repairing the Bridge of Essack, which they hoped to finish in 8 days; and that the Grand Visier had sent from Belgrade several Troops to reinforce those that were already posted on each side of the Drave, under the Command of 4 Bassa's. General Dunewald who Commands the Imperial Forces on the Drave (over which River he has laid a Bridge) is on his march towards Five Churches, in order to join the Duke of Lorraine. General Caraffa continues about Onod with 12 Regiments of Horse and Foot, besides Hungarians, to observe the Enemy, who are posted at Peter Waradin. And the Regiments that are now upon the Frontiers of Transylvania have Orders to join him.

Vienna, June 19. The Elector of Bavaria parted from hence the 17th Instant for Upper Hungary, to command the Army there. The Duke of Lorraine having given all necessary Orders to the Baron de Beck Governor of Buda, concerning the Fortifications of that place (the Lower Town whereof, with the Vienna Gate, and Water-Town are to be slighted) On the 9th Instant he Commanded the Infantry of the Imperial Army to march to Adon, two Leagues beyond Buda on the way to Essack; and the next day he follow'd in Person with the Horse. His Highness continued his march the 11th and 12th Instant along the side of the Danube, that he might have the conveniency of Boats to attend him with Provisions. And according to our last advices, his Highness was encamp'd the 10th Instant at Tolna. We have advice, that the Duke of Lorraine being inform'd that 8000 Turks, with 400 Tartars had pass'd the Danube on the Bridge at Peter Waradin, with Orders to attempt the relief of Agria at any rate, had given Notice of it to Count Caraffa, with directions to be very careful to oblige their motions. And there is a report that a Body of Turks advancing towards the Theysse, over which River they had laid a Bridge, they were attack'd by the Imperialists, and put to flight, 100 of them being killed, and several prisoners taken, with their Cannon and Baggage; and that the Imperialists had possess'd themselves of their Bridge over the Theysse.

Brussels, June 27. They write from Frankfurt, that Prince Lewis of Nor. bo. ng., Great Master of the Teutonic Order, and Prince Philip William his Brother, were both gone to pass the Campaign in Hungary. And by an Express of the 19th Instant from Vienna we are told, that the Elector of Bavaria parted from thence on the 18th, to Command the Army in Upper Hungary.

Hague, July 1. The Heer Hop, Envoy Extraordinary from this State to the Elector of Brandenburg, will in few days begin his Journey to Berlin. Yesterday pass'd in sight of Scuveling, two Dutch men of War, coming from the Mede, who with several others that are now at Sea, are to cruise to the Northwards for the security of our Commerce.

Whitehall, June 26. This day the Right Reverend Father in God, Dr. Thomas Watson, Lord Bishop Elect of St. Davids, was consecrated by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Lord Bishop of Rocheſter, and the Lord Bishop of Cheſter, in the Chappel at Lambeth-House.
