

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 27. to Thursday June 30. 1687.

Windsor, June 29.

THE following Address hath been Presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble and Thankful Address of many of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, commonly called Anabaptists, met together in the City of London, from the Counties of Middlesex, Hertford, Bucks, Oxon, Warwick, Northampton, Lincoln, Huntington, Bedford, Cambridge, Essex, Kent, Surrey, Sussex, Southampton, and Dorset.

May it Please Your Majesty,

WE many and great Sufferings which we have sustained for several years past, and the Apprehensions which we had, that our Troubles would still have increased upon us, caused us to fear, that they would not have ended short of the ruin of us and our Families. But the All-wise God, whose Providence is over all, hath Graciously disposed Your Majesties tender Heart to consider the Groanings of the distressed; and unexpectedly to interpose between us and those threatening Calamities, by Your never highly enough to be valued Clemency; expressed in Your most Gracious Declaration for Liberty of Conscience. In which Your Majesty hath Voluntarily, and of Your own Goodness, Granted us all that our Hearts could wish.

Great SIR, Under the strongest Obligations of Gratitude, we come to Your Feet with Hearts filled with Joy, to render our unfeigned Thanks for this general Ease and Quiet, which we, and all other of Your Majesties Subjects now enjoy; and of which Your Majesty hath given Assurance by Your Royal Word, unto us and all Your Subjects during Your whole Reign.

Now, that the God of Heaven will graciously Repentance into Your Bosom, all the Blessings of the distressed; That Your Government may be ease above all Your Royal Ancestors, to the convincing the whole World, that Your Majesty in this General Liberty hath fixed upon such Principles as are able to support their own Weight. And that the Wisdom of the Nation, when they shall meet in Your Two Houses of Parliament, will cheerfully agree to pray Your Majesty, that all this may be confirmed unto the present and after Ages by Law. That a universal Smile may appear in the Faces of all Your Loving Subjects, having now nothing to do but to Fear God Honour the King, and every one to be cheerfully industrious in his Calling. And that from the mutual Happiness both of Prince and People, the Reputation of Your Majesties just and wise Government, may spread throughout all the World: That Your Majesties Reign over us may be long: And that God would bless Your Majesty, and Your Royal Posterity, with all Blessings both Temporal and Everna.

We shall ever Pray.

Sighed for our Selves, and in the Behalf of many Thousands of the same Persuasion, unto whom we do belong.

Légborne, June 11. A Vessel arrived here from Smyrna met the Pope's and Maltese Gallies on their way towards the Levant; They parted from Messina the 20th of the last month: And the 25th, the Gallies of the Great Duke of Tuscany arrived there: And by the same Vessel we have Advice, that several new raised Troops were arrived at Smyrna, who having received their Pay, were sent from thence to Constantinople. The Bassa of Napoli di Romania is come from Venice to Florence, with a Retinue of about 40 Persons; He is expected here in few days, to embark from hence for Barbary.

Rome, June 14. The Marquis de Cogoludo, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown of Spain, having thought fit to expect the return of a Courier he has sent into Spain, before he undertakes his Journey hither, he has in the mean time appointed Don Frederick Sforza, to make the usual Presents to his Holiness on St. Peter's Eve, in Acknowledgement of the Homage due for the Kingdom of Naples. The Sieur Seylez, Envoy from the Elector Palatin to the Pope, is lately arrived here.

Venice, June 14. By a Vessel arrived from Zant, we are informed, that the Serafquier of the Mirea had taken the Field with 10000 Men, and that it was believed he had a design upon Napoli di Romania. That General Morosini having left Orders for the Landing of the Troops that were to be sent from hence to St. Maurizio, was sailed with the Gallies towards the Archipelago to join the Sieur Venier, who commands the Fleet. That the last Convoy with Ammunition and Provisions arrived at Corfu in 7 days after they parted from hence. That 400 Foot of the Garison of Navarin, had beat a Party of Turks, killing many and bringing away several Prisoners. By a Vessel from Dalmatia, we have advice, that the Bassa of Arcegovina (who was marching towards Narenta with his Troops) had not yet made any attempt upon the Fortresses of Opuscb; But since the Proveditor-General Cornaro had sent the Count de St. Paul with some Troops that way: He seemed rather to intrend intrenching himself at the Tower of Novin, and to send out Parties only to oppose the Morlaques. In the mean time the Bassa of Bosnia continues at Chim with 400 Horse and 200 Foot, as well to waste the Territory of Zara, as to put a stop to the Excursions of the Morlaques, who have been abroad in several Parties, and lately one of them commanded by the Chevalier Janco, met with a Convoy, which they attacked, and carried away 60 Horses