Board of Trade, Whitehall, October 8, 1861.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from the Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs, announcing that in consequence of representations made by Her Majesty's Government as to the hardship of exacting fines from vessels in ballast presenting themselves in the Ports of Cuba, without being provided with certificates from Spanish Consuls, the Spanish Government have seen fit to remit the fines levied on certain British vessels, but it is expressly stated that these remissions are to be considered as Special Acts of Grace and not as precedents for future cases.

It is important therefore that all British vessels proceeding to the Ports of Cuba should be provided with such Certificates.
