Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to accept the resignation of the Commission held by Captain John Fegg Elliot in the 7th Durham Rifle Volunteer Corps.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt that there was no surplus of Actual Revenue over the Actual Expenditure of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the year ended the 30th June, 1861;

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that no sum will be applied by them on account of the Sinking Fund under the provisions of the Act 10 Geo. 4, cap. 27, between the 1st day of October and the 31st day of December, 1861.

A. Y. Spearman, Comptroller-General.

National Debt Office, 30th September, 1861.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, - 1858.

DRONFIELD, DERBYSHIRE.

WHEREAS notice in writing was duly given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the Local Government Act, 1858, was adopted on the 12th day of September, 1861, by such part of the township of Dronfield, in the county of Derby, as maintains its own highways, such part having known and defined boundaries, and being commonly called the Dronfield Highway Boundary. And whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertized for three successive weeks in the Sheffield and Rotherham Independent, that being one of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid part of such township, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such part of such township to which notices are usually affixed. And whereas the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act by such part of such township has now expired, and no such appeal has been made.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do, hereby give notice that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the aforesaid part of the said township of Dronfield, commonly known as the Dronfield Highway Boundary, and that in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such part of the said township of Dronfield.

Given under my hand this eleventh day of October, 1861.

(Signed) G. Grey.

Home Office, Whitehall,

Whitehall, July 8, 1861.

The Right Honourable Sir William Erle, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Robert Handsley, of Burnley, in the county of Lancaster, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Lancaster.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Townhall, in the city of Manchester, on Wednesday, the 30th day of October, 1861, at eleven
