

in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at New Brighton, in the parish of Wallasey, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at New Brighton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those parts of the said parish of Wallasey, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, New Brighton.'"

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Chester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Frederic Haggitt, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Wallasey, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which shall be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint James, at New Brighton, shall be paid by the incumbent thereof to the said Frederic Haggitt.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, New Brighton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Wallasey, in the county of Chester, and diocese of Chester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of Marsden-lane, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'N. B. St. J. D. C., 1861, No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of such lane, opposite to the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 237 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Wallasey, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 238 on the same maps, and extending thence, first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of the said lane, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Mount-road, and extending thence in a direction, generally northward, to and along the middle of such road to its northern extremity, and extending thence westward to the fence dividing the close numbered 484 on the said maps, from the premises numbered 486 and the close numbered 485, on the same maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of such fence to its extremity, and continuing thence in the last-mentioned direction, and in a straight line to the northern boundary of the said parish of Wallasey. And which said part of the same parish is situate to the north of another imaginary line commencing at the first-mentioned point in the middle of Marsden-lane, opposite to the boundary stone aforesaid, and extending thence eastward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction, and in a straight line across the close numbered 237 as aforesaid, to the middle of the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 236 on the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 238A, and 277 on the same maps, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and of the fence which divides the close numbered 279 on the said maps from the close numbered 276 on the same maps, to the middle of the western end of a certain occupation road leading from the close numbered 279 as aforesaid, to Rake-lane, and extending thence first in the last-mentioned direction, along the middle of such occupation road, and then north-eastward along the middle of the Rake-lane, as far as a point in the same lane opposite to the middle of the western end of Zigzag-lane, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction to and along the middle of the last-named lane, and along the middle of the
