

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 4. to Thursday July 7. 1687.

Windsor, July 5.

THE following Addresses have been Presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Grand Jury for the City and Liberty of Westminster,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE who enjoy the greatest share of the Blessing of Your Majesties Residence amongst us, becoming thereby immediately sensible of Your Majesties studious Care of the Welfare and Happiness of all Your Majesties Subjects; and having seriously considered the frequent Instances Your Majesty hath given thereof during Your Reign. In all Humility we beg leave to prostrate our selves at Your Majesties Feet, with all Dutiful Gratitude for the same, and to acknowledge and admire Your Majesties incomparable Goodness and Clemency, expressed in Your late Declaration to all Your Majesties Subjects, by which Your Majesty hath not only secur'd the Duty and Love of us of the Church of England, but of all Your Subjects in general, to Your Royal Person and Government.

Wherefore, as well for our Selves, as for the City and Liberty, we Represent, we Assure Your Majesty of our readiness to assist Your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes on all occasions, and wish that we may live no longer when we cease to be

Your Majesties most Loyal, most Humble, and most Obedient Subjects.

This Address being Presented to this general Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held for the City and Liberty of Westminster, by the Grand Jury of the said Liberty, who have Subscribed the same for the concurrence of the Justices hereunto. The said Justices do unanimously concur with the Grand Jury in this Address, to be Humbly Presented to the Kings most Excellent Majesty, and do make it their Request to the Right Honourable the Lord Hunsdon, to introduce the Grand Jury unto the King's Majesty for their delivery thereof; or to Present the same himself in the Name of this Court, and of the Grand Jury of this Liberty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Grand Jury of Your Majesties Ancient and Loyal Borough of Suithurke, in the County of Surrey, made at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace holden for the same, on the 27th day of June, An. Dom. 1687.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, are ready to embrace all occasions to express our hearty Thanks to Almighty God, in the miraculous placing and preserving Your Majesty in the Royal Throne of Your Ancestors. And thereby making us, and the rest of Your Majesties Subjects exceedingly Happy, under Your Majesties great Care, and most Wise Conduct; We being very sensible of the great Truth in the Maxim of this Borough (viz.) That true and steady Loyalty to our King is the only means to preserve His Crown on His Royal Head, and His Subjects in their Liberties and Properties. And we do render to Your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for that great Assurance You have given us by all Your Gracious Declarations (especially Your last) That You will maintain the Church of England, as the same is by Law established; together with the Liberties and Properties of Your Subjects; For which, we of our bounden Duty, with all Thankfulness for Your Majesties great Clemency, and irrevocable Justice; do in all Humility offer to Your Majesty, our Selves, our Lives and Fortunes; ever praying for long Life and Health to Your Majesty; And that You may enjoy a long and peaceable Reign over us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of Your Majesties Collegiate Church of Ripon in the County of York, founded by Your Majesties Royal Grandfather King JAMES the First, of ever Blessed Memory.

May it please Your Majesty,

WHEREAS Your Majesty hath been Graciously pleased lately to Declare, That Your Majesty will Protect and Maintain Your Archbishops, Bishops and Clergy, and all other Your Subjects of the Church of England, in the free Exercise of their Religion, as by Law established, and in the quiet and full enjoyment of their Possessions, with ut any molestation or disturbance whatsoever; We cannot but think our Selves obliged in Duty and Gratitude, to return Your Majesty our hearty Thanks for these Gracious Expressions of Your Kindness, and for all Your former Assurances of Your Royal Favours to the Church of England, and Humbly to express our Loyalty, as becomes the true Sons of the Church of England, and

Your Majesties most Obedient, and Dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Venice, June 28. A Vessel arrived here from Constantinople, met in her way 16 Ships belonging to this State, off of Argentina, that were sailing towards the Island of Andros; The Master of the said Vessel reports, that there arrived daily at Constantinople, Vessels from Alexandria, bringing Soldiers and Provisions. That the Ottoman Fleet was failed towards Rhodes. That the Veteran Troops, being such as on account of their former good Services, or for other gratifications had obtained an exemption from the Grand Vizier Kupri, not to be called to the War, but upon the like extraordinary occasions of the Empire, were now order'd to be litted again, and 30000 of them should be sent to B grade. The Grand Signior continued in the Savilla, and the Captain Billa was expected at Scio; And the Gallies sent to the Black Sea have Orders to return to Affack. By Letters from Zint of the 4th Instant we are inform'd, that the Captain General is sail'd with all the Gallies to Coma, (where the General Rendezvous is appointed)