CONTRACTS FOR SALT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, December 2, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Wednesday the 18th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford,

420 tons of WHITE SALT and 260 tons of ST. UBE'S BAY SALT; to be delivered in equal proportions in the months of May and June, 1862. And 30 tons of WHITE SALT, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Plymouth; half to be delivered by the 31st of March, 1862, and half by the 30th of June, 1862, or earlier, if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the salt.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples (not less than 3 lbs. of each description of salt) must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, at the Victualling Yard at Plymouth, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, at the Vic-tualling Yard at Plymouth, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Salt," and must also be delivered at Somerset House.
