Notice of meeting to resolve on change from Bankruptcy to Arrangement.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

WHEREAS at the first meeting of the creditors of Freeman Cohen and Lewis Cohen, of the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Clothiers, Cap Manufacturers, Jewellers, and Dealers in Watches, and partners in trade, held before William Sidney Gibson, Esq., Registrar of the Court, at the Court of Bankruptcy for the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District, on the 20th day of December, 1861, the said bankrupts proposed to pay their creditors a composition of four shillings in the pound, payable by two instalments of two shillings in the pound each, at the respective periods of three and six months from the date of the confirmation of such proposal, to be secured by the joint and several promissory notes of the said bankrupts and Fibush Levinson, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Rabbi to the Jewish Congregation, and Lewis Emanuel, of the same place, Clothier, and payable to the creditors or their order. And whereas it appeared to the major part in value of the creditors of the said bankrupts present at such meeting that such proposal ought to be accepted, and that the proceedings in bankruptcy should be suspended, and the estate and effects of the said bankrupts be wound up under a deed of composition, and that a meeting be called, pursuant to the statute, in order that notice of such resolution should be given to every creditor not present or represented at the said first meeting of the creditors of the said bankrupts, whereupon such meeting was ordered to be called, and the said first meeting was adjourned to the day of such meeting. Notice is hereby given, that, in pursuance of the statute and the said resolution, a meeting of the creditors of the said bankrupts will be held on Friday, the 3rd day of January, 1862, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy for the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District, for the purpose of enabling three-fourths in number and value of the creditors present or represented at such meeting, to resolve that the estate ought to be wound up under a deed of composition or otherwise; and that an application be made to the Court to stay the proceedings in the bankruptcy for such period as the Court shall think fit.

In the Matter of Joseph Thompson, of Wakefield, Worsted Spinner, against whom a Petition in Bankruptcy was issued on the 7th day of May, 1861.

I HEREBY give notice, that the creditors who have proved their debts under the above estate, may receive a First Dividend of 1s. 6d. in the pound, upon application at my office, as under, on any day, except Wednesday and Saturday, between the hours of ten and twelve. No dividend will be paid without the production of the securities exhibited at the time of proving the debt. Executors and administrators are required to produce the probate of the will or the letters of administration under which they claim.

GEO. YOUNG, Official Assignee,
No. 5, Park-row, Leeds.

In the Court of Bankruptcy.

In the Matter of the Folkestone West Cliff Hotel Company (Limited), and in the Matter of the "Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856 and 1857."

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition for the winding up of the above-named Company and the affairs thereof, under the provisions of the said Acts, was, on the 21st day of December instant, presented to the Court of Bankruptcy in London, by Lockington Saint Lawrence Bunn, of Norwood, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman (who claims to be a creditor of the said Company, and a shareholder and a contributor thereof within the meaning of the said Acts), and that it is expected such petition will be heard before Edward Holroyd, Esq., one of the Commissioners of the said Court, on Wednesday, the 8th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, and any person desirous to oppose the making of an Order absolute for the winding up of the said Company under the said Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose, and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any contributory of the said Company requiring the same, or other person entitled thereto, by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated this 21st day of December, 1861.
