AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of January, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the spiritual duties of the parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, by uniting those benefices.

"Whereas the several requirements of the said firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act in respect of matters preliminary to, and in furtherance of, a proposal for the union of contiguous benefices, have been and are duly complied with in the present case by the inhabitants of the aforesaid parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds, and by the patrons of the same two benefices, and by the bishop of the diocese as appears by this scheme and by the statement and certificate set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"And whereas proceedings for effecting the said proposed union had been commenced and were pending at the time of the passing of the said lastly mentioned Act.

"And whereas the Right Honorable Beaumont Baron Hotham has, at his own expense, and upon land conveyed to us for that purpose, erected a new church in the said parish of South Dalton, capable of affording sufficient accommodation for the inhabitants of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"And whereas the said new church was consecrated by the Archbishop of York on the sixth day of this instant month of August, and by an instrument under our common seal, dated the seventh day of the same month, and made in pursuance of the Act passed in that behalf, we (with such consents as by the same Act are required) declared that such new church should be substituted for the old and dilapidated church of South Dalton; and did transfer to such new church the endowments, emoluments, and rights of, or belonging to, such old church, whereby such new church became, and now is, the parish church of the said parish of South Dalton; and the same is the church to be left standing and remaining within the proposed united benefice of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"And whereas the existing parish church at Holme-on-the-Wolds is in a dilapidated condition, and it is desirable to provide for the pulling down thereof upon the completion of the union of the
