FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1862.

Whitehall, January 9, 1862.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, to be laid before the Queen.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the President and Council of the National Rifle Association, of which His Royal Highness the late Prince Consort was Patron, venture humbly to approach your Majesty in your deep affliction and bereavement with the expression of our heartfelt sympathy and sorrow. No words of human sympathy can indeed lighten the blow which has so suddenly fallen upon your Majesty and your Royal House; God alone can give your Majesty strength and courage to bear it. But in after years it may perhaps be a comfort to your Majesty to reflect that the irreparable loss which your Majesty has sustained in the death of the Prince Consort was acutely felt in every home throughout the land, and that your faithful and devoted people mourned in heartfelt sympathy with your Majesty and in deepest sorrow for themselves.

That God may strengthen and support your Majesty is the earnest prayer of the President and Council of this Association.

(Signed) George, President.

Foreign Office, January 7, 1862.

ADDRESSES and Resolutions of condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, have been transmitted to Earl Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to be laid before the Queen:

From the British subjects residing at Dunkirk, Cologne, and Pau.

[The following Order is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of the 7th of January, 1862.]

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of January, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 57th section of the "Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861," it is enacted that the Trustees of Whitby Harbour may, for the purpose of maintaining and improving the harbour, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, impose rates on vessels using the harbour, and on goods shipped or unshipped in the harbour, not exceeding the rates specified in Schedule A annexed to the "Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853," and that any rates so imposed may be either in lieu of, or in addition to, any other rates leviable by the said Trustees. And whereas the Trustees of Whitby Harbour have prepared and submitted for approval a table of rates, as the rates to be levied by them on and after the 1st day of January, 1862. And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said rates do not exceed the rates specified in Schedule A of the "Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853," and that the same are proper and reasonable.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve and signify her consent to the said schedule of rates submitted as aforesaid by the Trustees of Whitby Harbour, a copy of which is subjoined.

Edmund Harrison.
