Pursuant to the Provisions contained in an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 14th year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, called "The Walworth Common Inclosure Amendment Act, 1851."

NOTICE is hereby given that, by a certain deed of appointment and conveyance, dated the 24th day of December, 1861, made between the Reverend Arthur Cyril Onslow, Clerk, Rector of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, of the first part; the Right Reverend Father in God Archibald Campbell, by Divine permission Lord Bishop of London, the Patron and Ordinary of the Rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, of the second part; the Venerable Benjamin Harrison, Archdeacon of Maidstone, of the third part; and the said Rector and the Churchwardens of the said parish of Saint Mary, Newington, the Minister and Churchwardens of the district church called Trinity Church, within the same parish, the Minister and Churchwardens of the district church called Saint Peter's Church, within the same parish, and the several other persons in the said deed named (which said Rector, Ministers, Churchwardens, and other persons are the present trustees appointed, and acting under the provisions of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 1st year of the reign of King George IV., chap. 41, intituled "An Act for Building Two New Churches or Chapels in the Parish of Saint Mary, Newington, commonly called Newington Butts, in the county of Surrey," and for other purposes relating thereto), of the fourth part: It is witnessed that, for the purpose of making provision for the better sustentation of the said two churches, called Trinity Church and Saint Peter's Church, and subject thereto for the present ministers or incumbents of the said two churches, and their successors ministers thereof for the time being; and also to the intent that the pews and sittings in the parish Church of Saint Mary, Newington, and the rents and profits thereof may be freed and discharged from all right, power, and authority of the said trustees, and their successors, over the same. He the said Arthur Cyril Onslow, Rector of the said parish church of Saint Mary, Newington, in pursuance and exercise of the power or authority given to him by the said "Walworth Common Inclosure Amendment Act, 1851," and of every other power in anywise enabling him in that behalf, and with the consent in writing of the said Lord Bishop of London, Patron and Ordinary of the said rectory, testified as therein mentioned, and with the consent and approval of the trustees appointed or acting under the said Act, 1st George IV., cap. 41, testified as aforesaid, did by the said deed or instrument, in writing, executed by the said Arthur Cyril Onslow, and the said Lord Bishop of London, in the presence of, and attested by, the two credible persons whose names are thereupon endorsed as witnesses attesting the execution thereof by them respectively, appoint that the hereditaments thereafter particularly described and expressed, and intended to be conveyed with the appurtenances as therein-after mentioned, should thenceforth go, remain, and be to the use of the said several persons parties thereto, of the fourth part, and their successors trustees for the time being of the said Act, 1st George IV., cap. 41, upon the trusts therein-after declared.

And for the purpose of further assuring the said hereditaments for the purposes and in manner aforesaid, he the said Arthur Cyril Onslow, Rector, as aforesaid, with the consent and approval aforesaid, did thereby grant and convey; and he the said Benjamin Harrison, at the request of the said Arthur Cyril Onslow, and to the intent that the same hereditaments might be exonerated and released from the charge created by a certain indenture, of the 24th day of September, 1856, as in the said deed mentioned, and from all claim and demand by virtue thereof; did grant release, convey, and confirm unto the said several persons respectively parties thereto of the fourth part, the trustees for the time being, appointed and acting under the provisions of the said Act, 1st George IV., cap. 41, and their successors. All those several messuages or tenements on the east side of the High-road, leading from Camberwell to London, with the yards, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in a row there called Bolingbroke-row, and numbered respectively 10½, 11, 12, 12½, and 13, abutting west and in front on the said high road, and in the rear and east on Red Lion-street; also all and singular the houses and buildings and pieces of ground on the west side of Red Lion-street, which are situate at the back or in the rear of the aforesaid several houses in Bolingbroke-row, all which said messuages or tenements, yards, buildings, and premises are more particularly delineated in the plan or ground plot thereof, drawn in the margin of the said deed, and are therein denoted by the colour blue; together with the yearly ground rent of five pounds, or one pound for each of the said houses in Bolingbroke-row, thereby appointed and conveyed, being an apportioned part of a yearly sum of sixteen pounds by a certain therein mentioned award allotted to the said Arthur Cyril Onslow, and his successors, rectors as aforesaid, in respect of the whole of the houses and hereditaments in Bolingbroke-row aforesaid, by the said award allotted to the said Rector the said yearly sum of sixteen pounds, being also an apportioned part of a yearly rent of sixty-six pounds, reserved by a certain indenture of lease therein also mentioned, bearing date the 20th day of July, 1770: To have and to hold the said messuages or hereditaments, rents, or apportioned rent, hereditaments and premises unto and to the use of the said several persons parties thereto of the fourth part, trustees for the time being, appointed and acting under the provisions of the said Act, 1st George IV., cap. 41, and their successors, for ever subject to the existing lease or leases of the same, but freed and exonerated from the charge created by the said indenture of the 24th day of September, 1856. And the said deed contains a declaration that the said parties thereto of the fourth part, and their successors, trustees of the said Act, 1st George IV., cap. 41, for the time being, shall stand possessed of the said hereditaments and premises thereby appointed and conveyed upon the trusts therein particularly mentioned and set forth, being trusts for the benefit of the said two churches, called Trinity Church and St. Peter's Church, in the said parish.

And notice is hereby further given that the appointment and conveyance made by the said deed
