AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of County Coroner," it was enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration a Petition presented to Her, as directed by the said Act, by the Justices of any county in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, praying the division of such county into two or more districts for the purposes of the said Act, to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of the said Act as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place, within each district, the Court for the election of Coroner for such district should be holden, as in the said Act is provided.

And whereas Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the county of Middlesex, in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the seventeenth day of April, A.D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, have presented a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, which said Petition, with the description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which such Petition was founded, as hereinafter respectively set forth, was duly certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two of the said Justices present, when such Petition was agreed to, setting forth that that part of the county of Middlesex for which Coroners are elected under writs de Coronatore eligendo had been customarily divided into two districts for the purpose of holding inquests during the space of seven years and upwards before the passing of the said Act; but the said county had not been divided into districts under or for the purposes of the said Act: and that one of such customary districts comprised the several parishes and places therein-after proposed to be named "The Eastern District," and the other of such customary districts comprised the several parishes and places therein-after proposed to be respectively named "The Central District," and "The Western District." That at the general session of the peace, held in
