In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of settled Estates."—(19th & 20th Vic., cap. 120.) And in the Matter of an Act of Parliament passed in the 21st and 22nd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and extend the Settled Estates Act of 1856."—(21st & 22nd Vic., cap. 77.)—And in the Matter of Francis, late Duke of Bridgewater's, Estates, situate in the parishes of Eccles, Manchester, Wigan, and Dean, in the county of Lancaster, and the parishes of Bowdon, Ashton-upon-Mersey, and Runcorn, in the county of Chester.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament and the General Orders of the Court of Chancery, Notice is hereby given that a Petition was, on the 17th day of June, 1862, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls by the Right Honourable George Granville Francis Egerton, Earl of Ellesmere, of Bridgewater House, in the parish of St. James, in the county of Middlesex, praying that the trustees or trustee for the time being of the will of the Most Noble Francis, late Duke of Bridgewater, may be authorised and empowered during such time and with such consent as in the Act of Parliament of the 3rd and 4th Victoria, intituled, "An Act to enable the Trustees of the Will of the late Duke of Bridgewater to make conveyances in fee or demises for long terms of years of parts of his trust estates in the counties of Lancaster and Chester for building on and improving the same, and to grant leases of coal and other mines and of waste lands, and also for removing doubts as to the right of nominating a Minister to the Church or Chapel lately erected by the Right Honourable Lord Francis Egerton on part of the said trust estates," is mentioned in reference to the exercise of the powers therein contained;—

1. To convey in fee simple or demise for terms of years not exceeding 999 years in possession, the lands and hereditaments which by the said Act of the 3rd and 4th Vic., and by the Act of Parliament passed in the 14th and 15th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Trustees of the Will of the Most Noble Francis, late Duke of Bridgewater, to make conveyances in fee or demises for long terms of years of his trust estates, and more effectually to administer the trusts of the Will of the said Duke," are authorised to be so conveyed and demised, and also the lands and hereditaments described in the first Schedule to the said Petition, upon, under, and subject to such and the same terms, covenants, and conditions as are in such Acts mentioned as to conveyances in fee and demises for 999 years, and either with or without a reservation of mines and minerals, and powers of getting, winning, and working the same and any other rights and privileges, and either in conjunction or connection with any conveyance in fee or demise which has already been, or may hereafter be made under the said Acts, or either of them, or under the Order to be made on the said Petition only;—

2. To convey or demise in like manner the right to use water springing or flowing within, over, or through any of the lands for the time being, subject to the trusts of the said Will, and also the surplus water of the Bridgewater Canal, or the Mersey and Irwell navigation;—

3. And also to grant leases for any term of years not exceeding 65 years in possession of the mines and minerals under the lands comprised in the second schedule to the said
