

Captain in Her Majesty's Navy, to enter into the Military and Naval Service of the said Emperor, and to accept any Commission, Warrant, or other appointment under the said Emperor, and to accept any money, pay, or reward for their services, and to fit out, equip, purchase, and acquire ships or vessels of war for the use of the said Emperor, and to engage and enlist British subjects to enter the Military and Naval Service of the said Emperor. And it is hereby further Ordered that it shall be lawful for every British subject to enlist and enter himself by engaging and enlisting himself with the said Horatio Nelson Lay and Sherard Osborn, and no other person or persons whatsoever, in the Military and Naval Service of the said Emperor, and to serve the said Emperor in any Military, Warlike, or other operations, either by land or by sea, and for that purpose to go to any place or places beyond the seas, and to accept any Commission, Warrant, or other appointment from or under the said Emperor, and to accept any money, pay, or reward for his service: Provided always, that the licence and permission hereby given shall be in force only for the term of two years from the said first day of September next, unless, by Order in Council made in manner aforesaid, such period should be further extended.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August, 1862,

PRESENT;

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed, as follows; viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of Middlewich, Cheshire, from the thirtieth of June to the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

In the churchyard of the parish of Elm, Isle of Ely, from first of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, to thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

In the churchyard of the parish of Oadby, Leicestershire, from the first of July to thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, it was directed that burials should be discontinued from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the churchyard of Combe Florey; and whereas it seems fit that such Order be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the directions contained in the said Order, with respect to the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard of Combe Florey, shall apply only to that part of the churchyard which lies to the south of the church.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the borough of NEWCASTLE-UNDER-LYME, in the county of STAFFORD, have under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that an Order in Council has been issued directing that burials be discontinued, with certain modifications, in the churchyards of St. Giles's and St. George's, both in the parish of Newcastle-under-Lyme; and representing that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing "the requisite and sufficient places of burial" for the inhabitants of the said parish of Newcastle-under-Lyme, and of such part of the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, as is situate within the borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, under the powers and provisions of the Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council for providing such place or places of burial under the provisions of the various Acts of Parliament relating to burials as shall be deemed requisite for the inhabitants of the said parish of Newcastle-under-Lyme, and of such part of the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, as is situate within the said borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give NOTICE of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth day of October next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct, that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the borough of NEWCASTLE-UNDER-LYME, one month at least before the said fourteenth day of October.
