Whitehall, September 8, 1862.

THE Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., has received the following Despatches from Earl Russell :

*Brussels,
September 3, 1862.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you that Her Majesty the Queen having come from Woolwich in the Fairy, embarked at Greenhithe on the 1st instant, at 5 P.M., on board the Royal yacht Victoria and Albert ; Her Majesty proceeded forthwith down the river as far as the Nore, where the Royal yacht anchored for the night. On the following morning, at daylight, Her Majesty proceeded to Antwerp, where the Queen safely arrived at 4 P.M.

The Duke and Duchess of Brabant immediately proceeded on board the yacht to welcome Her Majesty.

Her Majesty disembarked at 5 o'clock, and continued her journey to the Palace of Lacken, which Her Majesty reached at 6 P.M.

Owing to the Queen's desire to travel with the strictest possible privacy, all salutes and other public marks of respect were dispensed with.

Her Majesty intends to resume her journey to Gotha on Thursday afternoon next.

I am happy to inform you that Her Majesty and the Royal Family have not suffered from the fatigues of the journey.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) RUSSELL.

*The Right Honourable
Sir G. Grey, Bart., G.C.B.*

SIR, September 5, 1862.

WITH reference to my previous Despatch of the 3rd instant, it is my duty to inform you that Her Majesty the Queen resumed Her journey to Gotha, at 3.30 P.M., yesterday.

The Queen was accompanied to the private station of Lacken by their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Brabant and the Count of Flanders.

The Queen quitted Cologne at 10 P.M., and shortly before 9 o'clock this morning reached Gotha, where Her Majesty was received by His Royal Highness the Duke of Saxe Coburg-Gotha.

The Queen immediately drove to the Castle of Rheinhardtbrun, where Her Majesty arrived shortly after 10 o'clock.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) RUSSELL.

*The Right Honourable
Sir G. Grey, Bart., G.C.B.*

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 9, 1862.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Note from the Spanish Minister at this Court, enclosing a copy of a Spanish Royal Order prohibiting the importation into Spain, as also the sale in that kingdom, of all foreign medicaments not expressly mentioned in the Spanish Customs' Tariff. Such articles may, however, be imported if their admission is specially sanctioned by the Spanish Government.
