And whereas a Contagious or Infectious Disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox, or Variola Ovina, now prevails among the Sheep in some parts of the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such Disorder from spreading ;

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty’s Privy Council, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them, as aforesaid, make and ordain the several Orders and Regulations following ; that is to say :—

I.

It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any Sheep or Lambs to or from any or either of the parishes and tythings following, all lying and being in the county of Wilts, and near to the town of Devizes, that is to say, the parishes or tythings of

Horton,
 Bishop’s Cannings,
 Allcannings,
 Etchilhampton, and Allington,

or to drive or conduct any Sheep or Lambs through or by way of such parishes or tythings, or any or either of them, unless the person so removing, driving, or conducting such Sheep or Lambs shall first have obtained a certificate, in writing, signed by some person who may have been authorized by two or more Justices of the said county of Wilts to seize Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorders, under the 1st section of the said Act, that such removal, driving, or conducting may take place without danger of spreading the said disease.

II.

All Sheep and Lambs dying in any of the stages of the said disease, wheresoever such death or deaths shall or may occur, shall forthwith be buried by the person or persons in whose possession such Sheep or Lambs may be at the time of death, with their skins on, in pits of not less than five feet in depth, and the carcases so buried shall be covered with quicklime.

III.

All sheds and places whatsoever, and all railway trucks and other vehicles which may or shall have been used or occupied by Sheep or Lambs affected by the said disease, shall forthwith, after having been so used, be thoroughly cleansed with water, and immediately afterwards purified with chloride of lime by the person or persons in possession of such sheds, places, trucks, and vehicles respectively.

IV.

Every person in possession of any Sheep or Lambs in or amongst which the said disease shall manifest itself, shall forthwith give notice, in writing, of the fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the county or borough, in which such Sheep or Lambs may be.

V.

And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force for three calendar months from and after the date hereof.

Whitehall, September 12, 1862.

The Queen taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the decease of James, Marquess of Thomond, and Earl and Baron of Inchiquin, in the Kingdom of Ireland, without issue, in the month of July, 1855, the Marquisate of Thomond and Earldom of Inchiquin became extinct, but the dignity of Baron Inchiquin devolved upon Sir Lucius O’Brien, Baronet, now Baron Inchiquin, in the said Kingdom of Ireland, he being the lineal descendant and heir male of Donough O’Brien, the third son of Murrough, first Earl of Thomond and Baron Inchiquin ; that Sir Edward O’Brien Baronet, the father of the said Lucius, now Lord Inchiquin, died in the lifetime of the said James, Marquess of Thomond, whereby the younger brothers and sisters of the said Lucius, Lord Inchiquin, are precluded from enjoying that style, place, and precedence, which according to the ordinary rules of honour would have been due to them as the sons and daughters of a Baron, had their late father survived and become Baron Inchiquin ; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Robert O’Brien, Esquire, Henry O’Brien, Clerk, Incumbent of Killerskerdiney, in the diocese of Kilmore, in Ireland, Grace O’Brien, Spinster, Anne, wife of Arthur Martineau, Clerk, Master of Arts, Vicar of Whitkirk, in the county of York, Harriot, widow of Charles Henry Monsell, Clerk, deceased, and Katherine Lucia, wife of the Honourable Charles Amyand Harris, Clerk, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father the said Sir Edward O’Brien, Baronet, had succeeded to the said title and dignity of Baron Inchiquin :

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.
