

last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighteenth day of September last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows ; viz. :

GILDERSOME.—Forthwith within the church ; and that from and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, no grave or vault be reopened in the churchyard unless to bury another member of the family of those previously buried therein ; also, that no grave be dug less than five feet deep, nor in soil not free from water, coffins, or undecayed bones ; and that all coffins buried in vaults be separately enclosed in masonry or brickwork properly cemented.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed, as follows ; viz. :

In CROWLE churchyard, from the first of October to the twelfth of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

In WHITBY churchyard, from the first of October, to the sixth of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

In ILLINGWORTH churchyard, from the first January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

In DALSTON churchyard, Cumberland, from the thirty-first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, to the thirty-first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of November, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such Acts to be done by, or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health ; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish : provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations having been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the Churchyards of Saint Mary's, Hull, and Chilham, near Canterbury, has made representations stating that he is of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the vaults and graves beneath the church of Saint Mary's, Hull, and the mausoleum adjoining the north side of the church of Chilham, near Canterbury, from becoming or continuing dangerous to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to Order, and it is hereby Ordered, that the churchwardens of Saint Mary's, Hull, or such other persons as may have the care of the vaults beneath that church ; and the churchwardens of Chilham, near Canterbury, or such other persons as may have the care of the mausoleum adjoining the north side of the church, do respectively adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz. :—

SAINT MARY'S, HULL ; that the vaults and graves beneath the church be filled up with earth mixed with charcoal and covered with a layer of concrete.
