By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the 54th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 159, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers in the United Kingdom; and of His Majesty's docks, dockyards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose." It is enacted (among other things), that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks of any port, harbour, or haven of this kingdom, from which the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the time being, shall find it necessary for the protection of such port, harbour, or haven, or the works thereof, by Order under their hands, or the hand of their secretary, and published in the London Gazette, shall prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast, upon pain of forfeiting for every such offence the sum of ten pounds. And whereas, we, as Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, have found it necessary for the protection of the harbour of Torquay, in the county of Devon, to prohibit the taking or removing of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of the said harbour, between the West Pier and Corban Point. Now we, the said Commissioners, do hereby order that no person or persons shall take or remove any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of the said harbour between the West Pier and Corban Point aforesaid.

Given under our hands this 27th day of November, 1862.

*Charles Frederick,
Sam. Whitbread,*

Two of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom.
