PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for compensating the Reverend Osborne John Tancock, Doctor of Civil Law, the Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the parish of Tavistock, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, for the loss of certain fees, dues, or other emoluments which has been occasioned by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said Osborne John Tancock, as such Vicar or Incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution under the provisions of the said Act of the district of Saint Paul, Tavistock, which has since become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act, and that the assignment to the said Osborne John Tancock of the annual sum hereinafter-mentioned would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us to the said Osborn John Tancock, the Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the parish of Tavistock aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such vicar or incumbent, and no longer, the annual sum of four pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May, and the 1st day of November in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments sustained by him by reason of the formation of the district of Saint Paul, Tavistock, which has since become a new parish as before-mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose that payment of the said annual sum of four pounds shall be held to commence as from the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, being the day on which a church provided for the said new parish of Saint Paul, Tavistock, was consecrated, and from which day the Incumbent of the same new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof various offices, which had heretofore been performed at the church of the said parish of Tavistock, and also became entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit the fees accruing therefrom.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
