In the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Richmond. In the Matter of William Robson the younger, of Colborn, in the county of York, Shoemaker, adjudged a bankrupt on the 15th day of May, 1862.

WHEREAS at a public sitting of this Court, holden on the 24th day of July, 1862, for the said bankrupt to pass his last examination, and also to make application for his discharge, under the Bankruptcy Act, 1861, whereof and of the purport whereof, the notice required in that behalf was duly given, the said bankrupt passed his last examination, and, upon application then and there made, by the said bankrupt for such discharge, it was adjudged by the Court that the said bankrupt was entitled to such discharge after suspension thereof for the period of three months, the reasons for such suspension being, that it appeared to the Court that the insolvency of the said bankrupt was attributable to unjustifiable extravagance in living. And whereas the said period of suspension has now elapsed, notice is hereby given, that an order of discharge will be drawn up and delivered to the said bankrupt after the expiration of thirty days from this date, unless in the meantime an appeal shall be duly entered against the granting thereof.—Dated this 7th day of February, 1863.
