NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Crown Princess of Prussia (Princess Royal of Great Britain and Ireland) will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday the 28th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that presentations to Her Royal Highness at this Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to presentations to Her Majesty.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE CROWN PRINCESS OF PRUSSIA (PRINCESS ROYAL OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND), AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to Her Royal Highness.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, February 26, 1863.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the attainment of his Majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Manchester, approach your Majesty with feelings of profound respect and loyal affection.

We humbly offer to your Majesty our most sincere and cordial congratulations, on the happy attainment of his majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

In common with our fellow countrymen of every degree, we have witnessed with satisfaction and delight the earnest, assiduous, and religious care with which your Majesty, aided by the wise counsels of your late lamented husband, the accomplished and virtuous Prince Consort, has watched over and conducted the education of your Majesty's royal children. We cherish the conviction that, among the many conspicuous blessings conferred upon us as a nation, during your Majesty's glorious reign, there are none which will be dearer to your Majesty's heart, than the happy results of your Majesty's unflinching solicitude, as displayed in the character of your amiable and distinguished son, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

That His Royal Highness may long live in health, happiness, and prosperity, to assist your Majesty in your exalted and arduous station by his support and sympathy, and that your Majesty may be spared, by a gracious Providence, to enjoy for many years the loyal attachment and gratitude of your Majesty's devoted subjects, is our humble and heartfelt prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, this 10th day of November, 1862.

Abel Heywood, Mayor.

Jos. Heron, Town Clerk.

And the following on the same subject:—

From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Leominster.

Foreign Office, February 27, 1863.

IT is hereby notified that Earl Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, a Despatch, dated Washington, February 6, 1863 (of which the following is an Extract), enclosing a copy of a Note from Mr. Seward, dated the 5th of February, respecting the Blockade of the Port of Galveston.

"I have the honour to enclose a copy of a Note which I received at two o'clock this afternoon from Mr. Seward, stating that the Blockade of Galveston was 'resumed immediately, and will be continued until further notice.'"

Department of State, Washington, February 5, 1863.

MY LORD,

AS opinions may be entertained by Merchants interested in trade to the Port of Galveston, in Texas, that the blockade of that port by a United States naval force may, in consequence of recent events in that quarter, have been interrupted, I have the honour to acquaint you, with a view to obviate embarrassments to neutral commerce, which might be occasioned by such opinions, that the blockade was resumed immediately, and will be continued until further notice. Although due notice of such resumption will probably have been given by the commander of the blockading squadron to vessels which may attempt to enter Galveston, it is deemed advisable to communicate a similar notice to your Lordship.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) W. H. SEWARD.

The Lord Lyons.

HENRY FENTON JADIS, Comptroller of Corn Returns.

County of Dorset.

HIGHWAY DISTRICTS.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS, at a Court of General Quarter Sessions, held for the county of Dorset, at the County Hall, in Dorchester, in the said county, on the 5th day of January, 1863, and continued by adjournment to the Town Hall, in Blandford Forum, in the said county, on the 28th day of the same month of January, and further continued by adjournment to the County-hall, in Dorchester aforesaid, on the 17th day of February then next following, a Provisional Order, for the formation of certain parishes in the said county into Highway Districts, under the Statute 25 and 26 Victoria, chapter 61, was made in the words following (that is to say):—

Dorsetshire.—At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held at Dorchester, in and for the county of Dorset, on Tuesday, the 6th day of January, in the 26th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, and in the year of our Lord, 1863, before the Right Honourable Edward Berkeley Lord Portman (Chairman), John Floyer, Esquire (Deputy-Chairman), and others, Justices of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in and for the county aforesaid, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors, done or perpetrated in the same county, and continued by adjournment to Wednesday, the 28th day of the same month of January, in the year aforesaid, at the Town-hall, in Blandford Forum, in and for the said county, and then and there holden, before the Right Honourable Edward Berkeley Lord Portman (Chairman), John Floyer, Esquire, and others, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned for the purposes aforesaid, and continued by further adjournment to Tuesday, the 17th day of February, in the year aforesaid, at the County-hall, in Dorchester, in and for the said county, and then and there holden, before the Right Honourable Edward Berkeley Lord Portman (Chairman), John Floyer, Esquire, and others, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned for the purposes aforesaid,—it is ordered provisionally as follows:—

Whereas in pursuance of an Act made and passed in the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chap. 61, intituled, "An Act for the better management of Highways in England," a requisition thereunder has been duly made by writing, under the hands of more than five Justices of the Peace of this county, to the Clerk of the Peace, bearing date the 26th day of November, 1862, requiring the Clerk of the Peace to add to, or send with the notice required by law, to be given of the holding of the then next, and these present General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, a notice thereunto annexed in the Form prescribed by the said Act, stating that at the present Court of General or Quarter Sessions, a proposal would be made to divide the county of Dorset into Highway Districts, and also requiring the Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in prepaid letters, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens or Overseers of every parish in the said county, agreeably with the fifth section of the said Act: Now such requisition having been duly complied with by the Clerk of the Peace, and a proposal for such division as aforesaid having been duly made to this Court, in pursuance thereof, the Justices assembled at this present Court of General Quarter Sessions, do accordingly entertain such proposal, and do decide that this county (excluding the parishes of Affpuddle, Moreton, and Tonerspuddle, as being already formed into a district under the Act 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 50, and certain other parishes hereinafter mentioned), shall be divided into Highway Districts, for the more convenient management of its highways, in pursuance and according to the directions of the said Act of Parliament.

And whereas by virtue of the restrictions imposed by the said firstly-recited Act with respect to the formation of Highway Districts thereunder, the following parishes and parts of parishes, situate in this county, are excluded from the districts hereinafter formed (that is to say), the parishes of Melcombe Regis and Weymouth, and parts of the parishes of Radipole and Wyke Regis within the borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis; the parishes of All Saints, St. Peter, and part of the parish of the Holy Trinity, in Dorchester, and part of the parish of Fordington, within the borough of Dorchester; the parish of Bridport and parts of the parishes of Allington, Bothenhampton, Bradpole, Burton Bradstock, Symondsburys, and Wulditch, within the borough of Bridport; the parish of Castleton and part of the parish of Sherborne, by reason of their being respectively situate within districts constituted under the Public Health Act, 1848, and the Local Government Act, 1858, or one of them; and such parts of the parishes of Blandford Forum, Lyme Regis, and Shaston Holy Trinity, St. Peter and St. James, as are respectively within the limits of the Municipal Boroughs of Blandford Forum, Lyme Regis, and Shaftesbury respectively by reason of such consents not having been given for their inclusion therein as are required by the said firstly-recited Act.

And whereas, there are numerous townships, tythings, hamlets, and places in this county, which separately maintain their own highways, and it is desirable that they should (except such as are hereinafter excepted) be combined, in pursuance of the said firstly-recited Act, with the parishes to which they respectively belong:—The Justices assembled at these present Sessions (being the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace intencioned in the said requisition) do, accordingly, provisionally order that where a parish, included in any or either of the districts hereinafter formed, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided into townships, tythings, hamlets, or places, each of which separately maintains its own Highways, all such townships, tythings, hamlets, and places (saving those which are mentioned in this parenthesis, each of which being included by name in a Highway District hereinafter formed, is constituted a Parish, as defined by the said firstly-recited Act, and called "a Highway Parish" (that is to say), Outer Lillington (part of the parish of Lillington); Plush (part of the parish of Buckland Newton); Stoborough (part of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Wareham); the out-parishes of Lady St. Mary and St. Martin, Wareham; Benville and Mapperston (parts of the parish of Corscombe); Abbottstreet, Barnsley, Cowgrove, Petersham, and West Stone (parts of the parish of Wimborne Minster); Milton and Peirson (a tything in the parish of Gillingham); Middlemarsh (part of the parish of Minterne Magna); Newland (part of the parish of Wootton Glanvilles); Waterson and Ilington (parts of the parish of Puddletown); Childhay, Dibberford, Drimpton, and Littlewinsor (parts of the parish of Broadwinsor); and also saving such out-lying parts of parishes as being tythings or places are hereinafter annexed to a Highway District), shall be, and the same are hereby combined for the purposes of the said firstly-recited Act with such poor law parish; and the said Justices do declare that no separate Waywardens shall be elected for such combined townships, tythings, hamlets, and places; and that each of such combined parishes shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the Highways within it, which have been heretofore maintained by such townships, tythings, hamlets, and places therein separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that a Waywarden or Waywardens shall be elected for each of such combined parishes as a whole.

And whereas the following parts of the parish of Milton Abbas, in this county, that is to say, Holworth and Liscombe, are not contiguous to the said parish of Milton Abbas; and it being desirable that such outlying parts should be annexed to a Highway District for the purposes of the Highway Acts, the Justices now assembled do accordingly, in pursuance of the said firstly-recited Act, further provisionally order that such several outlying parts of the said parish shall be, and the same are hereby annexed to the districts hereinafter mentioned, in which such several outlying parts are specifically named, so that each of such outlying parts of the said parish shall for all the purposes of the Highway Acts be deemed to be a parish separately maintaining its own Highway. And where in any places named in either of the Highway Districts hereinafter formed, there have heretofore been no Surveyor or Surveyors elected, a Waywarden or Waywardens, as hereinafter mentioned, shall be elected for such places in the same manner, at the same time, and subject to the same power of appointment in the Justices, in the event of no election taking place, as a Surveyor or Surveyors would have been required by law to be elected or appointed if such places had maintained their own Highways, and heretofore appointed their own Surveyor or Surveyors.

And the said Justices do further provisionally order that the following parishes in this county, (that is to say) —

and such part of the parish of Blandford Forum as is not within the borough of Blandford Forum, subject to the restrictions, regulations, and provisions mentioned in the said firstly-recited Act, be united into and form a Highway District for the purposes of the Highways Acts, and that such District be called or known by the name of "The Blandford Highway District," and that each of the said parishes and parts of parishes therein shall elect one Waywarden; and that on the confirmation of this order the first meeting of the Highway Board of the said Blandford district be held at the Town-hall, in Blandford Forum, on Saturday the 11th day of April, 1863, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon.
