

regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, excepting in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,

Whitehall, May 11, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful subjects, the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham, humbly desire to express our continued devotion to your Majesty's Royal person, and to offer our fervent congratulations on the recent marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We recognize in his happy union with a Princess endowed with all the qualities fitted to adorn the high station which she is called, in the providence of God, to fill, an additional security to the Constitutional form of Government which we enjoy; and we unite in the hopes which the whole nation has expressed, that your Majesty may find in this new tie of domestic affection consolation and support in the discharge of the high duties of your Royal station.
