

the representatives of an institution most deeply indebted to the gracious favour of your Majesty, and your Majesty's Royal house, we deem it our privilege, as well as our duty, to offer this humble but sincere assurance of our participation in the national joy.

That the bright promise of happiness afforded by this auspicious union may, by the Divine blessing, be most fully realized, and that your Majesty may long be spared to see your Royal children the objects of the respectful attachment of a devoted people, and the emulators of the virtues of their illustrious parents, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's loyal subjects.

Darnley, President.

E. J. Bainbridge, Treasurer.

Thos. Kippax King, junr., Secretary.

Whitehall, May 15, 1863.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto Henry Julius Courtin, of Hermosa, in the parish of West Teignmouth, in the county of Devon, Gentleman, a naturalized subject of Her Majesty's realm, Her Royal licence and authority that he may in compliance with a direction contained in a certain settlement henceforth take upon himself and use the surname of Allcard, in lieu of that of Courtin, and also bear the arms of Allcard, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's office, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives, unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned, on the Turnpike Roads and Highways within the Petty Sessional Division of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, is dangerous and inconvenient to the public.

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order, under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever, propelled by steam, or any other than animal power, on the turnpike-roads and highways, within the above Petty Sessional Division of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, except between the hours of nine at night and eight in the morning.

Given under my hand, this 14th day of May, 1863.

(Signed) G. GREY.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives, unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned, on or along the Kettering, Thrapston, and Huntingdon Turnpike Road, and the Thrapston and Oundle Turnpike Road, is dangerous and inconvenient to the public.

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order, under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever, propelled by steam, or any
