A. S. EDMUNDS, No. 11, St. Bride's Avenue, Fleet-street, Solicitor for the Petitioners.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates, and in the Matter of certain beds and seams of coal known as the Black Bed, the Brown Metal Seam, and the Deep or Main Coal, otherwise the Middleton Seam, lying under certain hereditaments and premises situate at Holden, otherwise Howden Clough, in the parish of Birstal, in the county of York, devised by the will of John Gott, late of Holden, otherwise Howden Clough aforesaid, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Elliott Carrett, of Leeds, in the county of York, Engineer, and Eliza Ackroyd, of the same place, Widow, did on the 15th day of June, 1863, present a petition entitled in these matters to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor for hearing before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor, Sir William Page Wood, praying that the provisional agreement in the petition mentioned entered into by the petitioners with Messrs. Asquith Brothers, dated the 19th day of May, 1863 (being an agreement for a lease to the said Messrs. Asquith Brothers of the said seams of coal for a certain term of 14 years) may be carried into effect, and that a lease may be granted to the said Messrs. Asquith Brothers, for the term of 14 years, of the said beds or seams of coal, at the rents and upon the conditions in the agreement mentioned, or for such other term, at such other rents, and upon such other conditions as to the Court shall seem fit, and as shall be agreed to by the said Messrs. Asquith Brothers; or that the said beds or seams of coal may be let to such other person or persons for such term of years, at such rents, and upon such conditions as to the said Court shall seem fit, or that such further or other order may be made in the premises as may seem meet. Any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition may be served upon the petitioners, at the office of Messrs. J. W. and W. Flower, of No. 17, Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, Solicitors.—Dated this 16th day of June, 1863.

J. W. and W. FLOWER, No. 17, Gracechurch-street, London, Solicitors for the Petitioners.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the 21st and 22nd years of the said reign, chapter 77, entitled "An Act to amend and extend the Settled Estates' Act of 1856;" and in the Matter of two farms and hereditaments, called respectively Brook Farm and Whiting's Farm, situate in the parishes of Pembury Chapel and Tudely, and two messuages, gardens, and hereditaments, situate at or near to Primrose Hill, in the parish of Tonbridge; and a messuage, shop, and hereditaments, called Belgrave House, situate at or near the Crown Field, Tonbridge Wells; and seven cottages, a piece of land, and hereditaments, situate at or near Palmer-street, in the parish of Hadlow, all in the county Kent; and a share in the navigation of the River Medway, comprised in the general devise made by the will of John Waite, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition in the above matter was, on the 24th day of June, 1863, presented to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by John Martyr Luck, of Brenchley, in the county of Kent, Farmer, George Newnham, of Southborough, in the parish of Tonbridge, in the county of Kent, Farmer, William Waite, of Tonbridge aforesaid, Farmer,

John Waite, of Tonbridge aforesaid, Farmer, and Mary Ann Waite, Spinster, Fanny Waite, Spinster, Richard Waite, Samuel Andrew Waite, Sarah Jane Waite, Spinster, Henry Barham Waite, Elizabeth Waite, Spinster, Ellen Waite, Spinster, James Arthur Waite, Wmfred Waite, Spinster, and Emily Waite, Spinster, all of Tonbridge aforesaid, Infants, by Frances Waite, of the same place, Widow, their mother and guardian, praying that the said therein mentioned eleven undivided equal thirteenth parts of, and in the said hereditaments, mentioned above and in the title of the said Petition, may be authorized to be sold together with the remaining two undivided equal 13th parts, vested respectively in the petitioners, William Waite and John Waite, as therein mentioned, of and in the same hereditaments and the petitioners William Waite and John Waite submitting to concur in respect of the said two undivided equal 13th parts, vested in them respectively, that the entirety of the same hereditaments may be sold accordingly, with the approbation of the Judge, subject to the provisions and restrictions in the said Acts contained. That the money to arise from such sale may be paid to the petitioners John Martyr Luck, George Newnham, William Waite, and John Waite, as the trustees of the Will and Codicils of the testator, John Waite, deceased, formerly of Tonbridge, in the county of Kent, Yeoman, and that they and the trustees for the time being of the said Will may be at liberty out of the money to arise by such sale to pay the costs and expenses to be taxed as between Solicitor and client of all parties of and incident to the application and the said sale; that the petitioners John Martyr Luck, George Newnham, William Waite, and John Waite, and the trustees for the time being of the said will may be at liberty to pay one equal thirteenth part of the residue, after deducting the amount of such costs and expenses of the said money to arise by such sale to each of the petitioners William Waite and John Waite, in respect of the one undivided equal thirteenth part vested in him of the said hereditaments, and may be at liberty to apply the remaining eleven equal thirteenth parts of the said residue to some one or more of the purposes mentioned in the 23rd section of the first-mentioned Act, without any application to the Court, and may be at liberty from time to time until the same can be so applied to invest the same, or the unapplied portions thereof for the time being, in the purchase of Bank £3 per cent. Annuities, in the names of the said trustees, and to receive the dividends thereof and apply the same upon the same trusts, and subject to the same powers in all respects as are contained in the said will concerning the rents and profits of the said eleven undivided equal thirteenth parts of the said hereditaments; and that the said petitioners may have such further or other relief as the nature of the case may require; and that such petition will come on to be heard in due course before his Honour Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, when an application will be made on behalf of the said petitioners for an order according to the prayer of the said petition; and notice is hereby further given, that the place where the said petitioners may be served with any order of the Court or Judge in Chambers, or with any notice relating to the subject of the said petition, is the office of Messrs. Thomas and Hollams, Nos. 31, 33, and 35, Commercial Sale Rooms, Mincing-lane, London.—Dated this 27th day of June, 1863.
