The Queen has been graciously pleased to give and grant unto the Right Honourable John William Spencer Brownlow Egerton, Earl Brownlow, Her Royal licence and authority that he may henceforth take and use the surname of Cust in addition to and after that of Egerton, and also bear the arms of Cust quarterly, in the first quarter with those of Egerton, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds' office, otherwise the said Royal Licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in the College of Arms.

ORDER REGULATING THE USE OF LOCOMOTIVES WITHIN THE PETTY SESSIONAL DIVISION OF CARNARVON, IN THE COUNTY OF CARNARVON.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives, unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned, on any of the Turnpike Roads or Highways within the Petty Sessional Division of Carnarvon, in the county of Carnarvon, is dangerous and inconvenient to the public.

I do, hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order, under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever, propelled by steam, or any other than animal power, on any of the turnpike roads or highways within the said Division, except between the hours of nine at night and seven in the morning.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 10th day of July, 1863.

(Signed) G. GREY.
